GARDEN ROOM DIVIDERS

The Planter Room Dividers were designed due to a gap in our offering for those who wanted the benefit of greenery in a workspace without the requirement for storage. Without the storage we are able to design these units in a slim line fashion, they can be used at the ends of workstations or dividing workstations, as well as breakout areas or creating corridors in an open space.

LOCKERS

As communal and shared workplaces are becoming the new norm in the working environments and with more open floor plans presenting themselves lockers have never had a more integral part to play. Besides providing storage they can become breakout walls and separate zones where people can gather. Simply transform into a pinnable acoustic wall by simply applying a Sonik Panel on the back and sides or white board for that matter or upgrade to a welded locker garden refer to page. 25
