

ABOUT THE STUDENT SHOW

Nervous about entering your first real exhibit? This is a chance to get your feet wet for a modest fee. No pressure, just a lot of support and guidance from your instructor. Due to the nature of this show, works may also be entered in any other 'regular' exhibit at the Visual Arts Center. Open to entry from members and non-members, who have taken classes at the Visual Arts Center in 2019-2020. All submitted artwork must have been commenced or completed in a class at the Visual Arts Center.

ORIGINALITY POLICY

Only original works may be submitted. Any entry must be a concept entirely developed by the submitting artist and executed by his/her own hand. Duplications of another's work of art, whether by machine, hand or paint, is considered copyright infringement and may not hang in regular exhibits. Entries found not to be original will be excluded from the show and any awards revoked with no return of entry fees.

RELEASE & AGREEMENT

The Visual Arts Center (VAC), and its agents, will exercise care with respect to the property exhibited as it does in safeguarding its own property, but does not accept responsibility for the loss or damage to the artists' work during the exhibit and related activities. By entering an exhibit, the artist agrees to release and hold the VAC and its agents (including staff and volunteers) harmless from any liability, damage or loss to the artist and the artist's work arising in any way from or connected to this exhibition or related activities, or from any other loss or damage whatsoever arising from or connected to this show. The phrase "loss or damage" encompasses, but is not limited to, theft, mistaken labeling, damage by a guest or patron, damage by VAC and its staff or volunteers, damage due to environmental conditions or injury to the artist.

THE VISUAL ARTS CENTER

The Charlotte County Art Guild, Inc., operates as the Visual Arts Center, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. Founded in 1961 by local artists, its mission is to inspire, explore, create and promote the visual arts. It is supported by membership dues, program fees and donations. Membership is open to all. Updated 8/20/19.

DISPLAYING OF EXHIBIT WORKS

The Visual Art Center Exhibition Review Committee reserves the right to reject any work that is poorly presented and does not meet installation requirements. Artwork to be accepted must follow guidelines as established in exhibit "Guidelines for Exhibit" and/or prospectus for size, weight, framing and condition.

Publicity: All participating artists agree to allow the Visual Arts Center to use their artwork in advertising, in press releases, on our website, and in any other promotional activities. Care will be taken to give each artist proper credit.

2-D

Artwork must be either gallery wrapped or properly framed. Glass or plexiglass is acceptable. Pastels must be sealed. All surfaces must be dry. Must be securely fastened with picture wire with the center wire 3" below the top of the frame. Artwork must not exceed 5' in any direction. Weight not to exceed 25 pounds.

3-D

Artwork must fit within pedestal or artist must provide own pedestal. Weight up to 35 pounds is acceptable. Over 35 pounds, the artist is responsible for placement of artwork with the approval of the Review Committee. Jewelry must be on stands that artist provides. Some jewelry may be placed in VAC case.

FEES

This is a learning experience and to encourage participation, it's only $5 per entry, up to three. Fees are non-refundable.

VisualArts Center commission on sales is 35%.
