Bringing the art gallery into the home, the new Riser Coffee Table was originally created by Stephen Alesch to showcase artwork at Guild Gallery. Inspired by sturdy, hardworking, wood moving pallets, the Riser borrows language from cribbing construction, featuring wood beams organized in two directions for reinforced structural integrity. Solid wood boards form the square tabletop, which is held together by tapered dovetail joinery, and finished with soft chamfered edges. The boards of the base, running in opposite directions, are also finished with chamfered edges.

ABOUT THE CREATORS

STEPHEN ALESCH & ROBIN STANDEFER

Robin Standefer and Stephen Alesch are the founders and principals of Roman and Williams and RW Guild. They present a radical vision for the home and a way of living that is not just beautiful and luxurious; it is deeply connected to nature, culture, and community. Following in a tradition of makers who create forms, shapes, and ideas, every piece has a story informed by their years of work and study in the fields of architecture, film, fine art, and interior design. Each of Robin and Stephen's Original Designs is the product of deep research, exhaustive sourcing, and many stages of hand-drafting, constructing, and prototyping—quality is stubbornly uncompromising. Throughout all stages of production, each piece champions natural materials, and the master craftsmen and artisans who have dedicated their lives to proven, ancient techniques and methods. RW Guild Original Designs are about endurance and can be maintained and repaired, every piece a modern heirloom made to last for generations
