Where to buy Christmas decorations and fairy lights in Singapore

by Tracy Tristram | Nov 22, 2019

Fill your home with the sights and scents of the yuletide season with Christmas decorations from these stores...

We love getting a bit crafty with Christmas decorations – check out our pom-pom wreath and reindeer toilet rolls for some kid-friendly projects, and our DIY Christmas baubles if you're in the mood to bust out the craft kit too. But, there's also something quite special about adding to the Christmas decoration collection every year. (Psst, here's where to get fake and real Christmas trees in Singapore if you haven't already ticked that off your list!). So if you want to bag the best baubles, snap up awesome snow-globes and get your hands on the twinkliest of fairy lights, you're going to need our guide to where to buy the sparkliest and best Christmas decorations in Singapore. Hot tip: we recommend scoping out these stores NOW to save being left with tacky tinsel and ragged wreaths!

Lion Rock Press at TheAC Boutique

If you're on the hunt for cute ornate hanging decorations for the Christmas tree, you'll want to make a pit stop at TheAC Boutique at Raffles Hotel. This boutique is full of goodies from Lion Rock Press, and we're huge fans of the hanging decorations that offer a Singaporean twist to your Christmas tree (check out the adorable lucky cat, pictured above). May we add: it's also on point for Chinese New Year!

Christmas Merlion

Add a touch of Singapore to your Christmas tree with a beautifully crafted white bone china Merlion! Snap up a single Merlion for $26 or a set of four for $90 – the perfect addition to your decor for a tropical Christmas! Psst, you can also get them at Emperor's Attic, too!
