20 Events for Families to Celebrate Christmas in Singapore in 2019: Ice Skating, Snow, Christmas Pantos, Charity Runs & MORE

These activities for kiddos (and parents!) to celebrate Christmas in Singapore

Not every single event on this list is free, mama, but the ones that cost money – like decorating gingerbread houses or watching a hilarious Christmas panto – seem worth the spend to us. The most important thing is that you you and your kiddo have a ball!

Last year's Singaporean spin on A Christmas Carol had the whole family in stitches, so we can't wait to check out Peter Pan in Serangoon Gardens! With all the pressures of school and growing up in Singapore, Wendy and her brothers would rather be anywhere else than their stuffy bedroom in Serangoon Gardens. Enter Peter Pan, who promises to take them on an adventure of a lifetime! So up, up and away they go, journeying towards Neverland — an enchanted island where they never have to grow up. Along the way, they meet Ting Tong Bell's fairy friends, bewitching mermaids and a motley crew of Lost Boys. But they soon discover the dangers lurking in Neverland... in the form

The Snowman: A Heartwarming Christmas Classic

Based on Raymond Briggs's much-loved book and featuring Howard Blake's classic song Walking In The Air, this enchanting live show has thrilled audiences throughout the world since first appearing on stage over twenty years ago. If you're in the mood for a nostalgic Christmas classic, you'll want to bring your kids along to see The Snowman. When a young boy's snowman comes to life on Christmas Eve, the two set off on a night-time quest for adventure. They meet Father Christmas, dancing penguins, reindeer and crowds of The Snowman's friends, but will they escape evil Jack Frost and get back home for Christmas morning?
