

Lip Bomb: 5 Petal-Perfect Lip Hybrids

---

You know how a lipstick can be too intense? A gloss too, well, glossy? What we want for spring/summer is sheer, pretty color. A product that feels as good as it looks. A merger of the two most incredible lippies the world has to offer. The lip bomb of lip balms.

If you are constantly applying balm under your lipstick, or unsticking your hair from glossy lips, you are in for a treat. The newest addition on the lip color scene is absolutely stealing the show. It is two, if not three, fabulous products in one.

Enter the new lip hybrid. Brilliant lipstick color, with the sheerness of a gloss and the soft feel of a balm. All in one beautiful product.

All natural brands are combining healthy plant oils and waxes, essential oils, and fruit and mineral pigments to create these delicacies for lips. Forget average pink or blah tan. We are talking bright as a popsicle shades for the season.

Think pops of brilliant color blossoming on your kisser. Then imagine it not only keeps your pucker perfectly hydrated and kissable, but stays put too. The dream-like lip fusion to answer every gloss-loving gals dream.

For the rest of spring and all through summer, stow those straight-laced lipsticks and pack up the gleaming glosses. Get ready to take your look on holiday with shades of peony, fruit punch, and orange creamsicle. These posy-esque pout picks are the lip bomb of the tinted balm hybrids.

5 All Natural Petal-Perfect Lip Hybrids

5. Kari Gran Lip Whip in Radiant couldn't be more splendid. A sweet little pot of soothing lip moisturizer with a peony-hued burst of color.

These lip hybrids will have you summer ready in a flash, and wondering what you ever did without them.