When we're standing clueless in the beauty aisles, we admit we'd give anything to take a peep inside someone else's cosmetic bag for a sec. We mean, every gal has her own tools of the trade to get those sleek locks and a radiant complexion goin' on. And, now that the S.F. summer is coming at us at full speed, it's time we transition our makeup for the warm weather on the horizon.

This time around, we sought the get-pretty tips from local bloggers for stunning results that won't melt away. From Krystal Bick's tried-and-true BB cream to Annabel Ly's surf spray for easy beach-ready waves, this roundup will have you looking as hot as the temps to come. Learn all the expert picks after the jump, and get ready to get glowin' without breaking a sweat.

Pick 2: Kari Gran Lip Whip

"I just discovered Kari Gran, and am a total convert. The lip whip is moisturizing and adds just the right amount of shine and color for a minimalistic weekend look."
