Editors' Picks: December's 9 best natural beauty launches

You'd probably assume December beauty launches would be all about moisturizing creams and balms.

But our favorite natural beauty brands must have had a feeling about the unseasonably warm weather ahead, because the products that debuted this month are super varied and interesting.

Sure, there's an anti-aging lip treatment that will protect your pout from winter chapping, but we also chose a fashiony nail color collab, a fresh new natural deodorant, a gem-inspired body oil, and more.

Kari Gran Jolene Shimmer Lip Whip Duo ($31.50)

For days when you're all about a natural look, these Kari Gran limited edition lip duos are your year-round bestie. Packaged in chic black pots, they're hydrating (even restorative) on your lips and have a bit of density (from beeswax), which helps them remain glossy and in place for way longer than you'd expect from a fastidiously natural brand. They get their sweet name from Jolene Hart, the *Eat Pretty* author, who collaborated on these beauties.
