Happy 2016! Good news: Your year is already off to a kickass start, because some of the most epic beauty launches happen right now in January, so brace yourself (and your wallet). While your first weekend makeup routine of the year is set, consider stocking up on these 10 brand new beauty products that will kick off 2016 in a super pretty way.

8. Kari Gran Color Lip Whip in Marsala ($20): Ladies, if you're going on a hot date, put this on before (take it from me + our beauty editor Misty Spinney — we're both obsessed). It's a super hydrating lip conditioner, and their newest edition features this gorgeous color that's perfect for colder months.
