

Welcome!

What you have here is a near-complete set of resources that we make available at various events. Because our library continues to increase, we invite you to visit our website for more resources as well as for listings of current events. On this website, you can also sign up for our newsletter, which we sent out on a regular basis. We pack our newsletters with testimonies and topics surrounding our area of expertise—leading people into freedom through surrender to Jesus Christ! I do hope you will sign up!

As an offering of our ministry, we regularly speak to both small and large groups. Should you find yourself needing ministry for any reason or you would like to have us speak to your church or group, please don't hesitate to contact us.

If you have been blessed by this resource, we invite you to prayerfully consider becoming a donor. Our website provides several ways to give, including ACH and Debit/Credit Card.

Sincerely,

Stephen Black
