

Bar Supervisor

We are seeking an experienced hospitality professional to join our team as a Bar Supervisor, with a promotion to Bar Manager potentially available later in the year. The position will entail the following responsibilities:

- Drive customer service standards to create a welcoming environment, build a rapport with our regular clientele and consistently deliver the highest standards of hospitality
- Take great pride and care in the appearance and ambience of the bars & terrace at all times, and uphold the highest possible standards of cleanliness throughout
- Oversee mise-en-place for the bars by implementing a well organised, proactive approach to ensure that drinks are chilled well in advance, fridges are stocked up, ice buckets are filled, arrival drinks are prepared for events, and every little detail to help service run smoothly is taken care of.
- Provide training, supervision and regular feedback to our food & beverage team regarding our wine & drink selection and service standards & procedures
- Share responsibility for the storage and security of wet stock and assist with ordering
- Increase turnover by upselling wines, creating and promoting weekly cocktail specials, pushing bin-end items and encouraging team members to do the same

The successful candidate must be able to speak fluent English, have at least 1 year's relevant experience in a supervisory role at a high quality establishment and a friendly, outgoing personality. We will only consider applicants interested in a long term position with a desire to progress and succeed.

In order to fulfil the role you will be expected to display consummate levels of professionalism, meticulous attention to detail, a strong work ethic, an ability to work under pressure and a willingness to go the extra mile for guests and colleagues alike.

The Package & Progression:

Accommodation can be provided with 3 staff meals a day, laundry facilities & WiFi, whilst visiting friends and family can take advantage of preferential rates at The Farmhouse and Cobo Bay Hotels, subject to availability.
