you break your own heart
by telling yourself
to give it another shot
when you already know it is time to let go.

no idea what I'm doing but f*ck it

it is better to fuck up than to live your entire life and have nothing
happen at all.

no idea what I'm doing but f*ck it

how many times
do you need
to go back and forth
to make up that decision you've known all along?

no idea
what
I'm doing
but f*ck it

stop giving your energy to people who make you feel like shit.

sometimes
the best thing
you can do for yourself
is to leave.

the best self-care thing
you can do for yourself
is to not care.

it's always
the choices
you didn't make
that come back
to haunt you.

give it some time.

stick with the decision you have chosen and just let things play out.

let yourself live through the process.

you don't have to evaluate things right after you make the decision. you won't know it so quickly.

let life happen. and let yourself live for a little.

remember, you only fail when you give up.

otherwise, it's only a process of getting there.

it's like you're lost and trying to find the right directions to get to your destination.

you're not a failure for being lost. you just need to find the right direction and then start walking towards it.

I think growth
is meant to be
confusing,
because
if you're not questioning
then how are you finding out?

you manifest
a negative thought
inside you
on repeat
until it comes true
and you call it
bad luck.
