Dear

Guess who's hopping your way with some egg-cellent news? That's right—it's me, the Easter Bunny!

I hope you had the most egg-citing Easter ever! I've been so busy hiding eggs and spreading Easter cheer that I lost track of time. Oopsie! But don't worry, because guess what? Your special Easter surprise is still on its way!

Now, here's the scoop: On my way to your house, I ran into a little hiccup. It seems I took a wrong turn at Bunny Lane! Silly me! But no worries—I'm back on track and hopping as fast as I can to get your super-duper amazing Easter gifts to you.

In the meantime, keep your bunny ears perked and your eyes sparkling because something egg-stra special is heading your way very soon!

Sending you bunny hugs and carrot kisses!

♥ the Easter Bunny ♥
