Important Notes!

Please note, all items are handcrafted and will always have some kind of slight variation and you will need to allow for tolerance if getting anything created (eg. Signage) based off these dimensions.

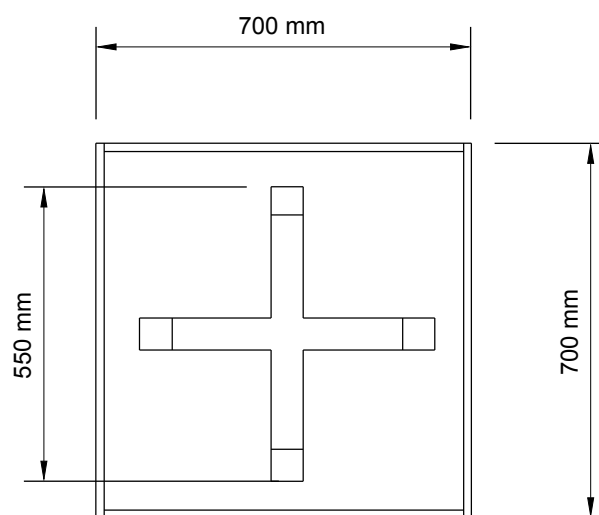

We would recommend approximately 10% tolerance on all dimensions. If you're looking to have signage created please read our guide on the website prior (www.timbermill.rent) prior to printing anything.

Timbermill holds no responsibility for anything created based off these dimensions.
