BEFORE YOU BEGIN WE WANT YOU TO KNOW . . .

We are thrilled that you have chosen to study A Divided Heart...A Divided Nation, the first of our ten courses in the Kings and Prophets Series. It will be such a blessing to your life because the Old Testament places a tremendous emphasis on the holy character and works of God that anticipate fulfillment in the person of Christ in the New Testament. In essence, it lays the groundwork for the only salvation possible—the salvation God provides in His Son “by which we must be saved.” The Bible is a progressive revelation—all sixty-six parts are essential to understanding the whole counsel of God.

As you begin this series, it’s vital to understand the importance of a study like this and some of the differences between studying (primarily historical) Old Testament books and (primarily doctrinal) New Testament epistles.

- In the Old Testament we come to know God—who He is and how He works in the affairs of mankind—and we develop a godly fear of His awesome majesty, holy character, and works.
- The nation that is in the front and center of all God’s dealings is Israel. So as you study Kings and Chronicles, you find yourself immersed in Israel’s history, studying events surrounding the reigns of her kings in an effort to get the big picture—to understand how these events affect her relationship to God and how God responds to His covenant people. It’s much like looking at the history of your country through the lives of its leaders, what the times were like under each, the direction each led the country, and how each impacted its future.
- As you observe the texts of Kings and Chronicles, remember observing history is different from observing doctrine. If you’ve done New Testament Precept courses, you’ll find doing Observation Worksheets of historical books is much different from doing one on a doctrinal epistle. You don’t want to get bogged down with details; rather, you want to get a general understanding of the times and God’s dealings. Also, your focus on key words will not be as strong as when you’re observing doctrine.
- It’s not important to remember every detail of a king’s life as long as you understand the essence of it—how lessons from his life and leadership can apply to your life and walk with the Lord.
- If you study the entire series (we pray that you will), you will also hear and understand God’s message to His people through the voices of His prophets during those times.
- According to 1 Corinthians 10:11 and Romans 15:4, what God chose to preserve in the Old Testament is for our example and instruction, “upon whom the ends of the ages have come” (1 Corinthians 10:11). The application, the encouragement, and the hope from these historical studies are distinctive.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR FIRST-TIMERS

Welcome to Precept Upon Precept Inductive Bible studies. We're excited that you'll be studying with us! Inductive Bible study draws you into personal interaction with God through His Word so that your beliefs are based on a prayerful observation and understanding of the Scriptures—truth that will transform your life. Studying this way is summed up in the words of the psalmist: “for You Yourself have taught me” (Psalm 119:102). May the Lord bless you richly as you delve into the treasures of His Word.

The following will be helpful to you as you begin your studies:

OBSERVING THE TEXT

In the lessons that follow, you'll be asked to mark key words or phrases on a particular passage using Observation Worksheets.

- Key words or phrases unlock your understanding of the text. Marking them distinctively with colors or symbols helps you quickly locate the word or phrase, see how it's used and how often.
- It's advantageous to keep markings simple; colors and color combinations are easiest least cluttering.
- You'll find suggestions on the back cover of your Precept book; however, colors and symbols are your choice.
- When you have several words or phrases to mark, it's helpful to read the chapter more than once, marking a couple of words each time.
- It's also helpful to make a bookmark and list all the key words, marking them the way you want to mark them in the text. You can cut out the one provided on the back of this workbook and use the blank side.

FILLING IN THE AT A GLANCE CHART

As you finish observing a chapter, you'll be asked to record its theme (main subject) on an At a Glance chart specifically designed for the book you're studying. This chart provides space to list each chapter's theme and places for recording other pertinent information on the book. When completed, this chart provides a synopsis of the book at a glance.

We have three sources that will show you how to do the above and more (all available at www.precept.org or by calling 800-763-8280):

WORD STUDIES

You'll find out how to do word studies by reading the chapter, "It's All Greek to Me," in How to Study Your Bible.

There are many helpful computer programs. We highly recommend Logos Bible Software's wide range of products.

We're so thankful you've joined us. You're about to join hundreds of thousands in an exciting adventure that will help you discover truth for yourself in a way you've never done before. Your life will be transformed and strengthened through the Word of God.

However, we want you to remember that it takes time and practice to make these study skills "second nature." And it does not come without spiritual warfare. The only offensive weapon the child of God has is the sword of the Spirit, the Word of God. You need to sharpen this sword and not let anyone or anything discourage you. Precept is not difficult; it simply takes time and discipline, but that's what discipleship is about!

QUESTIONS

If you have any questions, call your Precept Leader for help. We are sure he/she will help you or connect you with another student who can. We also want to urge you to take our training workshops. They will teach you basic inductive study skills and give you an opportunity to practice them. There are also workshops to help prepare you to lead Precept should God so direct. You can find out more about the training workshops by going online to www.precept.org.

Blessings, Beloved. Welcome to the Precept family.

Remember, you too can say with the psalmist, "I do not turn aside from your rules, for you have taught me" (Psalm 119:102).

IMPORTANT NOTE TO PRECEPT LEADERS

We have included “The Who’s Who Optional Review” after the last lesson for you and your students to help review the kings studied in this course.

Here are some suggestions of how this optional assignment can be used:

- In scheduling this course, plan an extra week at the end and have your students complete the optional assignment for that week. You can encourage them to be creative by preparing a song, poem, skit, etc. and/or sharing some of their completed sketches. This is a great way to review the kings of Israel and Judah and some of the main events of their reign. Allow time for students to tell how God spoke to them through His Word in this course. You may also have a time of fellowship with snacks or a luncheon.
- If you’re completing this course and then breaking, you can assign students to complete the optional assignment during the break. Remind them to review what they’ve done before your first meeting of the next course. At your first meeting, briefly review the kings to help new students understand the context. Let students show some of their sketches. Then help all students get started on their first lesson, making sure the new ones know how to do the assignments.

A Divided Heart...A Divided Nation
Lesson 1, 1 Kings 1–2

LESSON ONE

Man's Quest for Power and Prominence

THIS LESSON Cross-references
INCORPORATES The following located in the Appendix:
Observation Worksheet of 1 Kings 1–2
“1 Kings 1–15 at a Glance”

Life is not without conflict. Yet above and beyond the conflict, the Word of the Lord stands sure. God's purposes will not be thwarted by man.

What peace such knowledge can bring to your heart!

Let's look at how this is played out in the life of Solomon, the son of David, the King.

DAY
ONE

1. After you seek God in prayer, let's begin our study by simply reading through 1 Kings 1. You will find the text in the Appendix of this workbook. Remember this is history, God's record of what transpired millennia ago. The Old Testament, the Bible of the Jewish people known as the Tanach, was recorded for our instruction, on whom the end of the ages has come.

There are many lessons to learn from biblical history, which is HIS story—the account of God's dealings with His chosen people (who came through the seed of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and his twelve sons) and with the nations which interacted with them.

Remember, Jacob, whose name was changed by God to Israel, is the father of the twelve tribes of Israel, which comprise the nation of Israel.

With that brief introduction read 1 Kings 1. When you finish, summarize what's happening in as few words as possible.

A Divided Heart...A Divided Nation

Lesson 1, 1 Kings 1–2

2. Now, let's do our observations of 1 Kings 1. (If this is the first Precept course you have ever done, make sure you read the page for Newcomers at the beginning of this workbook). If you studied 2 Samuel with us—which delved into the first two chapters of 1 Kings as we concluded our study of David—we urge you to observe this chapter afresh.

If you have done a Precept course on a New Testament epistle, you will find observing historical books a bit different. In the former, you deal largely with doctrine, but in the majority of Old Testament books you observe events. Therefore you want to be careful you don't get bogged down in observation. Watch for main things—people, what they do, and what happens consequently. Focus on these, watch God in action, and listen to Him as He speaks through His prophets and you will learn much for your own life. You will find yourself instructed, encouraged, and strengthened in your knowledge of God, which in turn will give you hope (Romans 15:4).

Although there is not a lot to mark at this point in 1 Kings 1, make sure you do the following:

- a. Mark references to time. You can use a clock like this .
- b. Mark geographical references. Many of us simply double underline these in green.
- c. Pick a distinctive color for the following people and color-code them throughout the chapter. There is no need to color pronouns, unless of course you prefer to or it helps you discern who is who. Next to each of these names write down what they are.
 - 1) Abishag
 - 2) Adonijah
 - 3) Joab
 - 4) Abiathar
 - 5) Solomon
- d. Ask the investigative questions as you observe the text: who, what, when, where, why, and how. Who is this about? What is happening? When and where is it happening? Why is it happening? How is it done?

There's quite a bit of intrigue in this chapter, isn't there? You see so clearly the conflicts, the fracturing of relationships created by quests for power, position, and prominence. Things haven't changed, have they? As Solomon would write, "there is nothing new under the sun."

We'll go deeper into the story tomorrow.

DAY
TWO

1. Let's take another look at the Observation Worksheet of 1 Kings 1 and analyze it some more. Read the chapter again. This time divide it into segments by events. Simply draw lines on your Observation Worksheet between verses indicating new paragraphs or changes of events. Then in the margin record what happens in the segment.
2. Now summarize 1 Kings 1 in as few words as possible. This will be the theme of the chapter. Write it out, then record it on the "1 Kings 1-15 at a Glance" chart found in the Appendix.
3. Why are several vying for the throne? Was David's successor uncertain? As you observe these passages, search out the pertinent 5 Ws and H: who, what, when, where, why, and how.
 - a. 1 Chronicles 22:7-10, 17-19—Note who is told what and by whom.
 - b. 1 Chronicles 28:1-5; 29:1, 16-22
 - c. What does this tell you about Adonijah and those who align with him? Whom are they opposing?

4. Let's finish our day with some application. Observe James 3:13-18 printed out below. Read it through once and then follow the directions.

13 Who is wise and understanding among you? By his good conduct let him show his works in the meekness of wisdom.

14 But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast and be false to the truth.

15 This is not the wisdom that comes down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, demonic.

16 For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every vile practice.

17 But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and sincere.

18 And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

- a. Put a cloud like this  around references to wisdom, but do not color them yet.
- b. What two kinds of wisdom are mentioned in this passage and how are they characterized?

- c. Now differentiate the “wisdoms” by coloring the clouds differently.
- d. Number the characteristics that describe each kind of wisdom. See the example below.

15 This is not the wisdom that comes down from above, but is ^①earthly, unspiritual, demonic.

5. In light of James 3, what kind of wisdom did Adonijah and his followers have?
6. What have you learned today about wisdom that you can apply to your life? Have you been striving to attain a worldly position or status? If so, answering the following questions will help you understand where you're headed:

What status? Why do you want it?

How have you tried to get it?

Did you talk it over with God?

What impact could it have on your relationship with God?

Finally, what do you think you should do? (It's good to write this out like a journal. When you read it over, it helps you to understand where you are. Of course, you need to write honestly.)

Good start. We are so excited about what you are going to learn and apply to your life. You are going to grow so much spiritually. Your understanding of God is going to take on a whole new dimension. Continue to discipline yourself to know Him—and remember, Beloved, the enemy's tactic is to do all he can to keep you from the Word of God. Don't let him defeat you—victory is yours for the taking!

DAY
THREE

1. First Kings 2 opens with David's final command to his son, Solomon. It is quite interesting, so observe it carefully.
 - a. Make a bookmark for 1 Kings with the following words. Mark each with a distinctive color, color combination, or symbol. This "Key Word" bookmark will help you remember how to mark specific words you observe in each chapter.
 - 1) the ark of the Lord
 - 2) altar
 - 3) the tent of the LORD
 - 4) death, including die(d), killed (some of us use a black tombstone )
 - b. Color-code references to the people you marked in 1 Kings 1.
 - c. Because so many people are mentioned in 1 Kings 2, you may find it helpful to write their names in the margins of your Observation Worksheet next to the verse where they are first mentioned.
2. And again, you may find it helpful to divide the chapter into segments and record the main event within each segment. When you finish observing the chapter, record the main theme or event of 1 Kings 2 on the "1 Kings 1-15 at a Glance" chart as you did for 1 Kings 1 yesterday.

Great job. These are long but interesting chapters, aren't they? Thank you for your diligence. We rejoice over you. Rest now and tomorrow we'll take a closer look at what you've seen.

DAY
FOUR

We want to spend today and tomorrow focusing on characters mentioned in chapter 2 and see how their lives intertwine. We'll see in some instances how their lives could have taken a different course if they had paid careful attention to events and learned from the lives of others. Yes, God is sovereign; but the Word equally teaches that we are accountable for our choices.

4. Now, Beloved, what lessons from the life of Abiathar can you apply to your life?

It's neat (Isn't it?) to pause and reflect on the lives of others so we can learn from them! You become wiser when you take time to do this. Thank you for choosing to devote yourself to the study of God's Word in this way. It's our prayer that you (with countless others who have studied with us) reap the rich rewards from studying God's Word inductively with intensity and discipline.

DAY FIVE

We will continue where we left off yesterday. Remember to begin your study in prayer, seeking the mind and heart of the Author, God Almighty.

JOAB

1. Joab and his two brothers (Abishai and Asahel) were David's nephews. Joab was the first to attack and conquer Jebus, the Jebusite city later named Jerusalem. He became general of David's army. If you studied 1 and 2 Samuel, you will remember Abishai and Asahel held prominent places among David's mighty men. You will also recall that Joab gave David wise counsel for many years.

Why then did David order Joab's death? Read the following scriptures and see what you can learn:

- a. 2 Samuel 2:8-23 and 3:17-30

- b. 2 Samuel 17:25; 19:11-14; 20:2-13. Also note Amasa's relationship with Joab.

- c. Read 1 Kings 1:7 again. Who is Joab aligning himself with at this point?

- d. What do you learn about loyalty? To what degree should we be loyal to each other?

SHIMEI

- 2. According to 1 Kings 2:8-9, David promised not to kill Shimei. But what did he ask Solomon to do and why?
 - a. Read 2 Samuel 16:5-13. What did Shimei do to David when Absalom tried to usurp David's throne?

 - b. Read 2 Samuel 19:16-23. What did Shimei do after David prevailed over Absalom? Why did David spare his life then?

 - c. Two questions for you. Was David justified when he told Solomon to judge Shimei? How does Solomon's treatment of Shimei combine justice and mercy?

- f. What is the relationship of behavior to consequences? What can you learn from this and share with others, teach your children and other relatives you influence? What would you advise them to do before they act? Can you give them examples from your own life? Think these through and write down your insights.

Well done, Beloved! Think of what you have learned for yourself. You haven't done a study where you are taught what another believes or has experienced with God—rather you have interacted with the very words of God. You have seen truth for yourself. We are so proud of you for disciplining yourself in this way.

1 KINGS 1

Observation Worksheet

Chapter Theme _____

NOW King David was old and advanced in years. And although they covered him with clothes, he could not get warm.

2 Therefore his servants said to him, “Let a young woman be sought for my lord the king, and let her wait on the king and be in his service. Let her lie in your arms, that my lord the king may be warm.”

3 So they sought for a beautiful young woman throughout all the territory of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

4 The young woman was very beautiful, and she was of service to the king and attended to him, but the king knew her not.

5 Now Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, “I will be king.” And he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

6 His father had never at any time displeased him by asking, “Why have you done thus and so?” He was also a very handsome man, and he was born next after Absalom.

7 He conferred with Joab the son of Zeruah and with Abiathar the priest. And they followed Adonijah and helped him.

8 But Zadok the priest and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and Nathan the prophet and Shimei and Rei and David’s mighty men were not with Adonijah.

9 Adonijah sacrificed sheep, oxen, and fattened cattle by the Serpent’s Stone, which is beside En-rogel, and he invited all his brothers, the king’s sons, and all the royal officials of Judah,

10 but he did not invite Nathan the prophet or Benaiah or the mighty men or Solomon his brother.

- 11 Then Nathan said to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, “Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith has become king and David our lord does not know it?
- 12 “Now therefore come, let me give you advice, that you may save your own life and the life of your son Solomon.
- 13 “Go in at once to King David, and say to him, ‘Did you not, my lord the king, swear to your servant, saying, “Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne”?’ Why then is Adonijah king?’
- 14 “Then while you are still speaking with the king, I also will come in after you and confirm your words.”
- 15 So Bathsheba went to the king in his chamber (now the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was attending to the king).
- 16 Bathsheba bowed and paid homage to the king, and the king said, “What do you desire?”
- 17 She said to him, “My lord, you swore to your servant by the LORD your God, saying, ‘Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne.’
- 18 “And now, behold, Adonijah is king, although you, my lord the king, do not know it.
- 19 “He has sacrificed oxen, fattened cattle, and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the sons of the king, Abiathar the priest, and Joab the commander of the army, but Solomon your servant he has not invited.
- 20 “And now, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, to tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.
- 21 “Otherwise it will come to pass, when my lord the king sleeps with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be counted offenders.”
- 22 While she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in.
- 23 And they told the king, “Here is Nathan the prophet.” And when he came in before the king, he bowed before the king, with his face to the ground.
- 24 And Nathan said, “My lord the king, have you said, ‘Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne’?”

- 25 “For he has gone down this day and has sacrificed oxen, fattened cattle, and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king’s sons, the commanders of the army, and Abiathar the priest. And behold, they are eating and drinking before him, and saying, ‘Long live King Adonijah!’
- 26 “But me, your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon he has not invited.
- 27 “Has this thing been brought about by my lord the king and you have not told your servants who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?”
- 28 Then King David answered, “Call Bathsheba to me.” So she came into the king’s presence and stood before the king.
- 29 And the king swore, saying, “As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my soul out of every adversity,
- 30 as I swore to you by the LORD, the God of Israel, saying, ‘Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place,’ even so will I do this day.”
- 31 Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground and paid homage to the king and said, “May my lord King David live forever!”
- 32 King David said, “Call to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada.” So they came before the king.
- 33 And the king said to them, “Take with you the servants of your lord and have Solomon my son ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon.
- 34 “And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet there anoint him king over Israel. Then blow the trumpet and say, ‘Long live King Solomon!’
- 35 “You shall then come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne, for he shall be king in my place. And I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah.”
- 36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, “Amen! May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, say so.
- 37 “As the LORD has been with my lord the king, even so may he be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David.”

- 38 So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon ride on King David's mule and brought him to Gihon.
- 39 There Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the tent and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, "Long live King Solomon!"
- 40 And all the people went up after him, playing on pipes, and rejoicing with great joy, so that the earth was split by their noise.
- 41 Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they finished feasting. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, "What does this uproar in the city mean?"
- 42 While he was still speaking, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came. And Adonijah said, "Come in, for you are a worthy man and bring good news."
- 43 Jonathan answered Adonijah, "No, for our lord King David has made Solomon king,
- 44 and the king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites. And they had him ride on the king's mule.
- 45 "And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon, and they have gone up from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the noise that you have heard.
- 46 "Solomon sits on the royal throne.
- 47 "Moreover, the king's servants came to congratulate our lord King David, saying, 'May your God make the name of Solomon more famous than yours, and make his throne greater than your throne.' And the king bowed himself on the bed.
- 48 "And the king also said, 'Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has granted someone to sit on my throne this day, my own eyes seeing it.'"
- 49 Then all the guests of Adonijah trembled and rose, and each went his own way.

- 50 And Adonijah feared Solomon. So he arose and went and took hold of the horns of the altar.
- 51 Then it was told Solomon, “Behold, Adonijah fears King Solomon, for behold, he has laid hold of the horns of the altar, saying, ‘Let King Solomon swear to me first that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.’ ”
- 52 And Solomon said, “If he will show himself a worthy man, not one of his hairs shall fall to the earth, but if wickedness is found in him, he shall die.”
- 53 So King Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and paid homage to King Solomon, and Solomon said to him, “Go to your house.”

1 KINGS 2

Observation Worksheet

Chapter Theme _____

WHEN David's time to die drew near, he commanded Solomon his son, saying,

- 2 "I am about to go the way of all the earth. Be strong, and show yourself a man,
- 3 and keep the charge of the LORD your God, walking in his ways and keeping his statutes, his commandments, his rules, and his testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn,
- 4 that the LORD may establish his word that he spoke concerning me, saying, 'If your sons pay close attention to their way, to walk before me in faithfulness with all their heart and with all their soul, you shall not lack a man on the throne of Israel.'
- 5 "Moreover, you also know what Joab the son of Zeruah did to me, how he dealt with the two commanders of the armies of Israel, Abner the son of Ner, and Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed, avenging in time of peace for blood that had been shed in war, and putting the blood of war on the belt around his waist and on the sandals on his feet.
- 6 "Act therefore according to your wisdom, but do not let his gray head go down to Sheol in peace.
- 7 "But deal loyally with the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table, for with such loyalty they met me when I fled from Absalom your brother.
- 8 "And there is also with you Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjaminite from Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse on the day when I went to Mahanaim. But when he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the LORD, saying, 'I will not put you to death with the sword.'

- 9 “Now therefore do not hold him guiltless, for you are a wise man. You will know what you ought to do to him, and you shall bring his gray head down with blood to Sheol.”
- 10 Then David slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David.
- 11 And the time that David reigned over Israel was forty years. He reigned seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem.
- 12 So Solomon sat on the throne of David his father, and his kingdom was firmly established.
- 13 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, “Do you come peacefully?” He said, “Peacefully.”
- 14 Then he said, “I have something to say to you.” She said, “Speak.”
- 15 He said, “You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel fully expected me to reign. However, the kingdom has turned about and become my brother’s, for it was his from the LORD.
- 16 “And now I have one request to make of you; do not refuse me.” She said to him, “Speak.”
- 17 And he said, “Please ask King Solomon—he will not refuse you—to give me Abishag the Shunammite as my wife.”
- 18 Bathsheba said, “Very well; I will speak for you to the king.”
- 19 So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him on behalf of Adonijah. And the king rose to meet her and bowed down to her. Then he sat on his throne and had a seat brought for the king’s mother, and she sat on his right.
- 20 Then she said, “I have one small request to make of you; do not refuse me.” And the king said to her, “Make your request, my mother, for I will not refuse you.”
- 21 She said, “Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as his wife.”
- 22 King Solomon answered his mother, “And why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also, for he is my older brother, and on his side are Abiathar the priest and Joab the son of Zeruiah.”
- 23 Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, “God do so to me and more also if this word does not cost Adonijah his life!

- 24 “Now therefore as the LORD lives, who has established me and placed me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as he promised, Adonijah shall be put to death today.”
- 25 So King Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he struck him down, and he died.
- 26 And to Abiathar the priest the king said, “Go to Anathoth, to your estate, for you deserve death. But I will not at this time put you to death, because you carried the ark of the Lord GOD before David my father, and because you shared in all my father’s affliction.”
- 27 So Solomon expelled Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, thus fulfilling the word of the LORD that he had spoken concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.
- 28 When the news came to Joab—for Joab had supported Adonijah although he had not supported Absalom—Joab fled to the tent of the LORD and caught hold of the horns of the altar.
- 29 And when it was told King Solomon, “Joab has fled to the tent of the LORD, and behold, he is beside the altar,” Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, “Go, strike him down.”
- 30 So Benaiah came to the tent of the LORD and said to him, “The king commands, ‘Come out.’ ” But he said, “No, I will die here.” Then Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, “Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.”
- 31 The king replied to him, “Do as he has said, strike him down and bury him, and thus take away from me and from my father’s house the guilt for the blood that Joab shed without cause.
- 32 “The LORD will bring back his bloody deeds on his own head, because, without the knowledge of my father David, he attacked and killed with the sword two men more righteous and better than himself, Abner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah.
- 33 “So shall their blood come back on the head of Joab and on the head of his descendants forever. But for David and for his descendants and for his house and for his throne there shall be peace from the LORD forevermore.”

- 34 Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and struck him down and put him to death. And he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.
- 35 The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada over the army in place of Joab, and the king put Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar.
- 36 Then the king sent and summoned Shimei and said to him, “Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and dwell there, and do not go out from there to any place whatever.
- 37 “For on the day you go out and cross the brook Kidron, know for certain that you shall die. Your blood shall be on your own head.”
- 38 And Shimei said to the king, “What you say is good; as my lord the king has said, so will your servant do.” So Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.
- 39 But it happened at the end of three years that two of Shimei’s servants ran away to Achish, son of Maacah, king of Gath. And when it was told Shimei, “Behold, your servants are in Gath,”
- 40 Shimei arose and saddled a donkey and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants. Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath.
- 41 And when Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and returned,
- 42 the king sent and summoned Shimei and said to him, “Did I not make you swear by the LORD and solemnly warn you, saying, ‘Know for certain that on the day you go out and go to any place whatever, you shall die’? And you said to me, ‘What you say is good; I will obey.’
- 43 “Why then have you not kept your oath to the LORD and the commandment with which I commanded you?”
- 44 The king also said to Shimei, “You know in your own heart all the harm that you did to David my father. So the LORD will bring back your harm on your own head.
- 45 “But King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD forever.”
- 46 Then the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he went out and struck him down, and he died.
- So the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.
