A Must Read Before You Begin

Could it be that in picking up this Bible study on Isaiah that YOU are our answer to prayer? That we have “discovered” one another?

We have asked God to direct men and women to us from all walks of life who hunger for truth, who long for another dimension in Bible study—a way to study God’s Word that will enable them to discover truth for themselves, then, knowing that it is absolute truth, will confidently view all of life biblically and order their lives accordingly no matter the cost, people whose ambition is to be pleasing to God (2 Corinthians 5:9).

Have we discovered one another? Oh, how we pray so.

The Crown Jewel of Prophets

You are about to study the crown jewel of Old Testament prophets, a book that strikes awe in the heart of its reader. The words of Isaiah were often found on the lips of the Christ, the Messiah prophesied in Isaiah. Think then, if Jesus, God incarnate, honored this grand and glorious book so highly, how we ought to do the same. In its 66 chapters lies the destiny of nations, the future of all mankind . . . including yours and mine, Beloved. Is it any wonder Isaiah is mentioned by name 54 times in the Bible including all the Gospels, Acts, and Romans?

The Structure of Isaiah

While it would be great to read through Isaiah before we begin, we’re going to take it chapter by chapter. Basically the book can be divided into two parts, chapters 1–39 and chapters 40–66. It’s structured like the Bible itself: 39 chapters in the Old Testament and 27 chapters in the New Testament.

Our Strategy

The number of chapters we cover in each lesson will vary according to the structure of Isaiah, the flow of thought, and what can be reasonably accomplished in a week’s lesson. So if we ask you to do three Old Testament chapters in one week, don’t collapse in a heap.

And don’t go by the number of pages in a lesson! It has nothing to do with the amount of work. Do what you can week by week. And if you don’t complete a lesson, don’t look at what you didn’t finish! Rather consider what you accomplished—even if only one day! It’s better than nothing! Train yourself to persevere—to finish what you started. That, in itself, is commendable in these days and is the “stuff” that moves us towards godliness.

If you have studied New Testament courses with Precept Ministries International (PMI) but never an Old Testament course, you’ll soon realize that observing Old Testament books is different from observing New Testament Epistles, mainly because you are dealing with different kinds of literature.

Isaiah, Yesha’yahu, means Jehovah saves or salvation of Jehovah. And this is what will unfold so beautifully in this book filled with Hebrew poetical parallelism. It’s a poetry which states a truth and then often repeats it immediately, saying much the same thing but in different words. They say reading Isaiah in Hebrew is an incredible experience.

However, even if you don’t read Hebrew, like Isaiah, you too will see the Lord “high and lifted up,” (KJV) sitting on His throne and you will understand why night and day the heavenly host cries, “Holy, Holy, Holy” as they worship the Holy One of Israel. You’re going to gain a firsthand knowledge of God that you have never had before—and this by itself is reason enough to do this study.

As You Begin

- remember when you go to the Word of God itself (study inductively) God Himself is your Teacher. This study will help you say with the psalmist, “I have not turned aside from Your ordinances, for You Yourself have taught me” (Psalm 119:102).

- If you have questions on how to do word studies or other exercises, Precept’s How to Study Your Bible will not only teach you the skills of observation, interpretation, and application, it will give you practical help on Hebrew and Greek word studies. It’s a book you ought to have in your library. (Go to our website for more information: www.precept.org.)

- You’ll need a Bible and colored pencils for this study. Consider using what we think is the best study Bible, The New Inductive Study Bible (NISB). You can get it at your local Christian bookstore or from Precept Ministries International on the web at www.precept.org, or by phoning 800-763-8280, or by mailing P. O. Box 182218, Chattanooga, TN 37422-7218.

- Your study time will not go unchallenged. The enemy of your soul, the prince of this world, does not want you to discover truth for yourself. Satan is a liar and the father of lies and he knows truth sets you free. Persevere—every believer is an overcomer (1 John 5:4-5).

- Don’t let anyone tell you Precept is too hard. It’s not. Precept Upon Precept Inductive Courses simply require time and discipline. People from all walks of life and levels of education in 150 countries do these studies which have been translated into 70 languages. You are part of a worldwide family that values the Bible enough to give it the time and discipline it warrants—after all, it is God’s Word!
• You will see us calling you “Beloved.” That is because you are—to God and to the Precept Family. Believe it or not, feel it or not, you are beloved. You’ll find it throughout the New Testament Epistles. We’re in good company—right there with Peter, Paul, John, and Jude, men who used the term frequently! You need to know you’re beloved.

- May discovering the truth of Isaiah for yourself be a lifetime blessing causing you to know Him and understand His ways in a dimension greater than you ever expected.
- May it challenge you to place “the government of your life” on the shoulders of the Son of God to order all your life in light of the day when all nations will come and see His glory (Isaiah 9:6; 66:18).
- May it give you a steadfast hope that will cause you to see the Lord’s rainbow in every stormy event of your life and in the collision course of history.

Minister To Others

Bring along another with you to the study. People long to be mentored in the issues of life and you couldn’t do it any better way. We are so eager to hear what God does. Please let us know. You are prayed for.

Question of the week:

_How does the Holy One of Israel deal with those who claim Him as their God but don’t honor Him as God in the way they live?_

The same thing is happening today. What’s the answer?
DAY ONE

God has a legal case against His people and He’s about to take them to His holy court! What’s the problem—and what does it have to do with you and me today? That is what we are about to discover over the next two weeks as we study the first five chapters of Isaiah.

1. You will want to begin in prayer, Beloved. Remember it is God, by His Spirit, who is your Teacher, the One who searches the hearts and minds of men and who sends His Word to heal them and give them His wisdom and understanding. Therefore, make it your habit to begin each day of study in prayer.

2. Our focus today will be chapter 1. Read it either in your Bible or using the Observation Worksheets in the Appendix. Observation Worksheets are the text double-spaced with wide margins, so that you have space to note observations as you do assignments. This will give you a perspective on God’s Word through His messenger. When you finish, look at Isaiah 1:1.

   a. Why is Isaiah 1:1 so important? What insight does it give you? Or to put it another way, what role does this verse play in understanding Isaiah?

   b. Now, let’s get down the details of Isaiah 1:1. (You may have answered these questions above. We just want to make sure you don’t miss anything.)

      1) Who is writing? And what do you learn about him?

      2) What is he writing?

      3) Who does it concern?

      4) When was it “seen”?

   c. You just saw that Isaiah prophesied during the reign of four kings of Judah. Now, let’s see where the names of those kings are mentioned in Isaiah 1–39. Read the following scriptures, record what it says about the king, who he is and what is happening. Then note their names on the first column of segment divisions, Kings of Judah, on the “Isaiah at a Glance” chart in the Appendix next to the chapter you find that information in. Do it in pencil in case you want to change or move anything later. As you’ll see, the At a Glance chart is a great way to keep a summary of the framework of Isaiah. Among other things it will help you see the segment divisions of the first 39 chapters and give you a better understanding of the big picture of Isaiah.

1) Isaiah 6:1

2) Isaiah 7:1

3) Isaiah 14:28

4) Isaiah 36:1

d. Comparing what you just saw in Isaiah with Isaiah 1:1, what king’s name is missing in the text of Isaiah? Who reigns before him and after him?

e. Now, there’s a wonderful “Isaiah’s Timeline” chart in the back of this book that will give you a visual overview of the times of Isaiah’s ministry.

1) Look for Isaiah on the timeline. Record the years of Isaiah’s ministry below and on the At a Glance chart under Dates. Then you might want to write these dates in your Bible next to Isaiah 1:1.

2) Locate the kings mentioned in Isaiah 1:1 on the timeline. Then record the dates of their reigns below and next to the information you put on your At a Glance chart under Kings of Judah. You will notice overlapping dates which show the father and son ruled jointly for a period of time.

3. What is chapter 1 about? Who is speaking and to whom? What is being said? The way to unlock meaning in texts is to search out the answers to the 5 Ws and H: who, what, when, where, why, and how.
   a. Did you notice that the first W is who? It’s a good place to begin your observations because people are the easiest to see. So start with the who’s of chapter 1; list the main characters.

   b. You can come up with some great insights when you color-code the texts. Identify speakers by coloring every reference to them (names, pronouns, synonyms) with one color, then those they are speaking to in another. Color-coding is an effective identification tool.

   Read Isaiah 1 and color every reference to:

   1) Israel, the sinful nation, in one color. Mark synonyms (e.g., people) and pronouns. If you need a suggestion, use blue. Blue is the color of the stars on Israel’s flag.

   2) the Lord in another color, for example yellow (since God is Light!)

   Only mark Israel and the Lord this way in chapter 1 unless otherwise instructed.

4. After you’ve marked the text, see what you learned about those you marked. For example, when you marked the Lord, did you notice that He’s referred to several different ways? List these ways below. (By the way, when you read LORD in the text of Scripture in all caps it is the translation of YHWH
[Yahweh]. If it’s printed Lord, it is the translation of Adonai which means “master.”

5. Review what you learned about God’s people from marking references to them, and then in as few words as possible summarize what Isaiah 1 is about.

6. Finally, Beloved, as you bring today to a close, think about what you’ve learned in just one day. Do you see parallels between the status of God’s people then and now? Anything applicable here?

Are you saying, “Wow!”? It is a wow, isn’t it! You have taken in a lot of information today. Don’t worry about keeping it all in your head; it’s on paper and you can look at it any time you need to. Plus week after week, your Precept Leader is going to review with you what you’ve learned. You have an awesome study awaiting you. Just remember the enemy of your soul, the prince of this world, the devil, called Satan does not want you to know these things and he will do all he can to persuade you to do anything but study the Word of God in this way. DO NOT LISTEN. Determine now, that you are going to devote these next fourteen weeks to the study of Isaiah and that you will finish your course. Make this your daily prayer. This is the book for this time in history!
DAY TWO

1. Don’t forget to begin your study time with prayer. Remember, beloved of God, you have access to the Author and He truly wants you to know, understand, and live by every word that comes from His mouth. “Blessed are You, O LORD; teach me Your statutes” (Psalm 119:12).

2. The first thing we want to do today is to make sure we have the broad historical context of the history of the nation of Israel after the death of Solomon.

   a. After the death of Solomon (David’s son and the third king of Israel), Israel became a divided nation in 931 B.C. Look at another chart we have for you in the Appendix: Israel’s Division and Captivity and fill in the blanks from the information on the chart. It is taken from The New Inductive Study Bible.

      1) The Northern Kingdom of Israel made Samaria its capital. It was taken into captivity by __________ in ______ B.C. Was this during, before, or after Isaiah’s time? Circle the right answer.

      2) The Southern Kingdom of Judah had Jerusalem (Zion, God’s holy mountain), as its capital. God placed His name there and subsequently Solomon also built the temple there. It was taken captive by __________ in ______ B.C. Was this during, before, or after Isaiah’s time? Circle the right answer.

      3) Because the Northern Kingdom was called Israel, when you read Isaiah it is necessary to discern whether a reference to Israel is to the whole nation or to the Northern Kingdom. This is determined by context.

      4) You can tell from the chart that when Isaiah begins his prophecy, the Northern Kingdom has not yet gone into captivity under the Assyrians. Therefore in light of what Isaiah 1:1 says and the chart you are looking at, is “Israel” in 1:3 a reference to the Northern Kingdom or the whole nation?

b. Who were the other prophets during Isaiah’s time and who did they prophesy to? Use “Isaiah’s Timeline” in the Appendix to find their names. By the way, a prophet was a person God called to deliver His message.
c. Look up the books of each of these prophets in the Old Testament and read the first verse of each one. What do you see?

3. Now, let’s take a few minutes to read about Uzziah’s reign since Isaiah tells us this is when he begins his prophecy. As you look up each of the following passages, summarize what you learn about Uzziah, the other kings mentioned in conjunction with him, and the times of their reigns.

a. 2 Kings 14:17–15:38 (By the way, Azariah is another name for Uzziah.)

c. Now stop and reflect on how the Kings and Chronicles sections parallel Isaiah 1.
You’re off to a good start, friend. We are so thankful you’ve chosen to study with us. How we pray Psalm 119:102 will become your verse . . . that you’ll say, “I have not turned aside from Your ordinances, for You Yourself have taught me.” Incredible, isn’t it? “You Yourself”—God Himself is your Teacher!

Before you close your book take a few minutes to reflect on Psalm 119:102 and what you’ve read so far this week, beloved of God.

Once again, do you see similarities to today? You may want to write down what comes to mind and any prayers on your heart provoked by the Spirit of God, who searches the mind and heart of the Father, then intercedes for us according to His will.

1. Today we’re going to read Isaiah 1 again, this time marking key words. First make a key word bookmark. It’s quite simple but let us take you first-timers by the hand and walk through the process step-by-step.

   a. Using a large index card or the back of the perforated card on the back cover of your Precept book, write the key words listed below under number 2. A key word is an important, frequently repeated word or phrase that helps you unlock the meaning of the text. By the way, leave room to add to the bookmark as you proceed through Isaiah.

   b. Mark each word or phrase in its own distinctive color, color combination and/or symbol on the key word bookmark as you want to mark it in your Bible or on your Observation Worksheet. Suggestions for marking some frequently used words are on the front of your perforated key word card. Marking enables you to easily spot every occurrence of the word in the text.

   c. When you mark key words, also mark their pronouns and synonyms.

2. Following are some of the key words and phrases for Isaiah. An asterisk * denotes words that have marking suggestions on your key word bookmark.

   a. word of the Lord (and references to the Lord speaking). Some of us draw a symbol like this [ ] in purple and color it green.

   b. sin (and synonyms like sinful, sinners, iniquity, transgression, doing evil, wicked)*

   c. land, when it refers to the land God promised Israel by covenant. (If you’ve studied the Old Testament with us, you’ve been doing this since Genesis.) Some of us use the double underline in green we use for all geographical locations. Then, we color the land blue to match Israel’s flag.
d. city (Zion, Jerusalem, mountain) when it refers to the mountain of the Lord; see Isaiah 2:3 and 66:20. This is a very important word throughout Isaiah, so you don’t want to miss anything God says about the city of Jerusalem or Zion, as it’s also called. You could use a blue star of David like this ▲.

e. righteousness (righteous) *
f. fire and burning when it refers to destruction by fire/burning and when it refers to the Lord. It is a very important word, as you will see.

g. time references*
h. geographical locations*

3. Now you are ready to observe and mark Isaiah 1.

We are so proud of you! Think of the truth you’re going to discover for yourself. It’s exciting, isn’t it, to “hear” what God has said, know it’s truth, understand its meaning, and apply it to our lives.

Now for two important hints if you’re new to Precept. (We are so thankful to have you, Beloved.)

• As you mark every key word, stop and see what you learn from marking that particular word. Sometimes it’s helpful to compile a list of what you learn, for instance about the city of Zion—Jerusalem. Remember a city represents people.

• Some students prefer to read the chapter several times, marking only a few key words at a time.

4. At the beginning of each lesson and in the Appendix, you’ll find a timeline of “The Prophetic Points of History.” As we study Isaiah, we will see that Isaiah refers to each of these time periods. For example, in chapter 1, you may have noted a change in the chapter between verses 23 and 24. In verses 1-23, Isaiah speaks God’s message concerning the state of Israel during Isaiah’s own time. The repeated phrase, “I will,” beginning in verse 24 shows that these words of God through Isaiah are about a future time.

Read verses 24-31. Have the events described happened yet? If not, we know that they will fit into either Christ’s Second Coming and Reign of Christ or New Heaven/New Earth.

As you continue studying Isaiah, keep referring to “The Prophetic Points of History.” You may want to indicate in the margin of your Observation Worksheet or your Bible what time period is being referred to. Some of us use a pencil so we can easily make changes as we continue to study.
5. Now having done your observations, let’s pause for some application. We had you mark sin and iniquity the same way. But there’s a shade of difference between the two.

In the Hebrew, iniquity, “āwâ means either ‘to deviate from the standard’ or ‘to twist the standard.””¹

Sin, “hātā’ means ‘to miss, to fall short of the standard.’”²

This is what Israel was doing to the standard of God’s Word—the commandments He gave them. As you close your study today, spend some time in prayer. Ask God to show you ways you are deviating from, twisting, or falling short of His standards—and then tell Him you want to walk in faith’s obedience.

DAY FOUR

Once again, until it becomes a habit, let us remind you to begin your study with prayer, in a divine encounter with the Holy One of Israel, the Lord of hosts. . . . “For You Yourself have taught me” (Psalm 119:102). Savor it! Sit at His feet, listen to what He says, hang on all His words, meditate on them. Tell Him you want to know Him, learn His precepts, and understand how to live in light of truth. To live is Christ.

1. As you spend time in this first chapter, it will become evident that Israel’s covenant God is calling His people to account through His spokesman Isaiah! Let’s go back to the Torah (“the Law”), written by Moses, to see why God is taking Israel to court, so to speak. Why the “lawsuit”? What covenant terms did they break?

c. Now read Deuteronomy 28:15-20, 45. Summarize what’s being promised (threatened, actually) and why.

d. Now why the lawsuit in Isaiah 1? (This isn’t a trick question; the answer is simple and short.)

e. Finally, what does God promise in Deuteronomy 30:1-5 and to whom? Do you see hints of this in Isaiah 1? Where and for whom?

2. Now, stop and reflect on why the LORD God describes Himself with the title He cites in Isaiah 1:4. It’s used twenty-seven times in Isaiah, far more than in any other place in the Word of God. It connects with God’s message to His people through Isaiah. So you’ll want to mark it in a distinctive way. Whenever you see it, remember, Beloved, this is who God is today. God never changes—He’s immutable. As you write how God refers to Himself in Isaiah 1:4, note the context He does it in.

How should remembering this and taking it to heart affect your behavior? Notice we said “should,” not “would.” If we’re true children of God, we’re not slaves to sin but we’re still able to do it—it’s a matter of choice. Just remember, God tells us, “be sure your sin will find you out” (Numbers 32:23). A holy God cannot overlook sin!

3. Now let’s move to Isaiah 2, an absolutely incredible chapter. You’ll soon see why. Observe the chapter, asking the 5 Ws and H. Add the following key words and phrases to your bookmark, then mark them in the text:

   a. in the last days (Mark this in a way to distinguish it from ordinary time phrases.)

   b. nations—God has much to say about the nations in Isaiah, so it’s important to mark.

   c. the house of the Lord (You can also mark references to the temple in Jerusalem [which is the house of the Lord] the same way.)

   d. lofty (proud, pride, haughty) (You could use an upward arrow over the word.)

   e. humbled (abased) (You could use a downward arrow like this)

   f. idols

4. Now, divide chapter 2 into paragraphs or segments. (One possible division is 2-4; 5-11; 12-22.) Then summarize the content of each segment in as few words as possible. You can do this on your Observation Worksheet or write below with the verse numbers.
5. Do Isaiah 1 and 2 discuss different subjects or does chapter 2 extend the subject of chapter 1? (Read the first verse of chapter 2 to get a hint.)

6. Finally, record the themes of Isaiah 1 and 2 on the “Isaiah at a Glance” chart in the Appendix. The theme is the main subject of the chapter—what the chapter is about. The At a Glance chart is a very important tool in inductive Bible study—it helps you discern the structure of a book: how the material is laid out, how the content of each chapter relates to the whole, and how the book divides into segments.

Thank you for wanting to reason through truth, to respect and honor God’s Word by studying to show yourself approved to Him. Thank you for not wanting to be simply spoon-fed but for wanting to press on to maturity as Hebrews 5:14–6:1 says—by exercising your senses. You’re a joy to our hearts, brothers and sisters of passion—the passion to know Him more and more.

DAY FIVE

1. Now, Beloved, let’s reflect on what you observed in Isaiah 2. Reflection (meditation) is such an important step toward discovering truth for yourself. We’re so busy, our lives filled with so much noise and stimulation that we seldom take time to be quiet, to reflect on truth and talk with our Father about what He says. So turn off everything and THINK!

   Even if you feel you have covered some of the questions in yesterday’s homework, answer them anyway for review. It helps to consider truth from several perspectives. However, if you feel you already have answers from your observations yesterday, you don’t have to write down your insights again.

2. How does Isaiah 2 begin? Look at the first four verses.

   a. What’s going to happen? To whom?
b. When?

c. Where?

3. Compare Isaiah 2:1-4 with Micah 4:1-3. (Remember your Isaiah Timeline? Micah is a contemporary of Isaiah.) What do you see? Remember what you saw when you looked at Micah 1:1 at the first of the week.

O beloved student, do you realize what you’ve just learned about the future? It should strike you with awe and give you a settled peace at the same time. When you wonder where God is—why He doesn’t stop evil peoples and nations—when you question His justice, you can run to the promise of His future when He will be exalted in all the earth. You’ll be there to see and experience it yourself if you are truly a child of God!

And if you’re not—if you profess Christianity but do not possess Christ within, the hope of glory—then ask God in His mercy and grace to save you. He will never cast out those who come to Him. Rather He will take them into His forever family. That can be you!

4. Now let’s compare Isaiah 1 and 2:1-4. Is there any promise or glimmer of hope for anyone in Isaiah’s message in chapter 1?
   a. Where is it? What is it? Who benefits?

   b. Does it in any way relate to Isaiah 2?
5. What’s happening in Isaiah 2:5-11? Do you see similar things in society today?

6. What did you learn from marking proud?

7. What did you learn from marking idols? As you list insights, think this through. God doesn’t want you to miss the irony of what idol worshipers are doing.

8. Now, how does Isaiah 2:12-21 relate to Isaiah 2:1-4? What ties the sections together?
9. It’s so interesting to compare scripture with scripture—to let Scripture interpret Scripture.
   a. Read Revelation 6:12-17. The worthy Lamb breaks the seals on the scroll. Are there similarities with Isaiah 2?

b. Let’s look at the time phrase the last days and see what we can learn about them. There’s more to come, but we’ll start here.
   1) Review what you learn about the last days from Isaiah 2:2-4.
   2) According to Hebrews 1:2, when did the last days begin?

   3) Now, in light of these insights, when are you living, Beloved of God?

10. Do you realize how important these verses are? If you simply let God say what He says and believe He means what He says about the future, you can learn much about what yet awaits us and the whole world. As you study Isaiah, you are going to come across many references to the time of the end, the last days when “the LORD of hosts will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem” (Isaiah 24:23).
   a. It would be profitable for you to keep a running account of all the scriptures that deal with this period of time, including the days preceding His reign. You will find a page in the Appendix: “The Days Preceding and Including the Reign of the Lord of Hosts on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem” where you can list your observations, or you may want to create a file for this on your computer. By the way, we’ll refer to this in future assignments as your “End-Times List.”
   b. Record on this page anything you’ve learned about these days from Isaiah 1:27-31 and Isaiah 2:1-4; 10-21.
   c. Now look at “The Prophetic Points of History” timeline. Where do the sections of this chapter fit? Record in the margin of your Observation Worksheet or your Bible the points referred to. It’s all right if you’re unsure at this point. You’ll have an opportunity to talk about this in your group discussion.

Don’t you just love the wonder of how the Word of God all fits together? What an awesome privilege we have to study it in such freedom! Thank you for disciplining yourself for the purpose of godliness, for honoring the Holy One of Israel by honoring His Word.

11. Let’s stop for some serious application. It’s so easy to look at Israel with disdain and judge it for its idolatry, pride, and wealth (chariots and horses) and forget that God preserved these Old Testament words for our (the Church’s) instruction upon whom the end of the ages has come (Romans 15:4; 1 Cor. 10:11).

God calls the house of Jacob through Isaiah to “walk in the light of the Lord”—not in the darkness of unbelief’s neglect and disobedience. If He expects this from His covenant nation, what does He expect from those under the New Covenant of Grace? Remember grace is not a license to sin; rather, it’s the power to overcome it.

O Beloved, what about us? Are we walking in the light of the Lord or in the pride of life? In His love or in love for the things of the world? In humble reliance on His Spirit or in confidence in the flesh?

Take some time to sit before the Lord and ask Him to search your heart. What are its affections? How brilliant is His light seen in the way you live, the choices you make, the lifestyle you choose, the way you expend the time, talents, and finances He’s given you?

12. Finally, what about the exhortation in 2:22?

   a. Why this word at this time? What does it tell you?
b. Once again, is there any application you can make to your own life, Beloved?

We are so proud of you. Just think about what you learned. It’s awesome, isn’t it? Now, until your eyes close on your pillow tonight, THINK about what you’ve learned about your God from His Word. As you have seen, despite man’s sin, there’s a future and there’s hope because there is God.

But because He is the Holy One of Israel, some will experience His terror and the splendor of His majesty when He arises to make the earth tremble.

Don’t forget the truth you’ve seen for yourself. Summarize it in prayer. Remember if you have sinned, there is a future and a hope for you, as there was for Israel. Believe it, God said it. It is yours to live by . . . .
The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz concerning Judah and Jerusalem, which he saw during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 Listen, O heavens, and hear, O earth;
For the LORD speaks,
“Sons I have reared and brought up,
But they have revolted against Me.

3 “An ox knows its owner,
And a donkey its master’s manger,
But Israel does not know,
My people do not understand.”

4 Alas, sinful nation,
People weighed down with iniquity,
Offspring of evildoers,
Sons who act corruptly!
They have abandoned the LORD,
They have despised the Holy One of Israel,
They have turned away from Him.

5 Where will you be stricken again,
As you continue in your rebellion?
The whole head is sick
And the whole heart is faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even to the head
There is nothing sound in it,
Only bruises, welts and raw wounds,
Not pressed out or bandaged,
Nor softened with oil.
7 Your land is desolate,
    Your cities are burned with fire,
    Your fields—strangers are devouring them in your presence;
    It is desolation, as overthrown by strangers.
8 The daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard,
    Like a watchman’s hut in a cucumber field, like a besieged city.
9 Unless the LORD of hosts
    Had left us a few survivors,
    We would be like Sodom,
    We would be like Gomorrah.
10 Hear the word of the LORD,
    You rulers of Sodom;
    Give ear to the instruction of our God,
    You people of Gomorrah.
11 “What are your multiplied sacrifices to Me?”
    Says the LORD.
    “I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams
    And the fat of fed cattle;
    And I take no pleasure in the blood of bulls, lambs or goats.
12 “When you come to appear before Me,
    Who requires of you this trampling of My courts?
13 “Bring your worthless offerings no longer,
    Incense is an abomination to Me.
    New moon and sabbath, the calling of assemblies—
    I cannot endure iniquity and the solemn assembly.
14 “I hate your new moon festivals and your appointed feasts,
    They have become a burden to Me;
    I am weary of bearing them.
15 “So when you spread out your hands in prayer,
    I will hide My eyes from you;
    Yes, even though you multiply prayers,
    I will not listen.
    Your hands are covered with blood.
“Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean;
Remove the evil of your deeds from My sight.
Cease to do evil,

Learn to do good;
Seek justice,
Reprove the ruthless,
Defend the orphan,
Plead for the widow.

“Come now, and let us reason together,”
Says the LORD,
“Though your sins are as scarlet,
They will be as white as snow;
Though they are red like crimson,
They will be like wool.

“If you consent and obey,
You will eat the best of the land;
“But if you refuse and rebel,
You will be devoured by the sword.”
Truly, the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

How the faithful city has become a harlot,
She who was full of justice!
Righteousness once lodged in her,
But now murderers.

Your silver has become dross,
Your drink diluted with water.

Your rulers are rebels
And companions of thieves;
Everyone loves a bribe
And chases after rewards.
They do not defend the orphan,
Nor does the widow’s plea come before them.
24 Therefore the Lord GOD of hosts,
The Mighty One of Israel, declares,
“Ah, I will be relieved of My adversaries
And avenge Myself on My foes.

25 “I will also turn My hand against you,
And will smelt away your dross as with lye
And will remove all your alloy.

26 “Then I will restore your judges as at the first,
And your counselors as at the beginning;
After that you will be called the city of righteousness,
A faithful city.”

27 Zion will be redeemed with justice
And her repentant ones with righteousness.

28 But transgressors and sinners will be crushed together,
And those who forsake the LORD will come to an end.

29 Surely you will be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired,
And you will be embarrassed at the gardens which you have chosen.

30 For you will be like an oak whose leaf fades away
Or as a garden that has no water.

31 The strong man will become tinder,
His work also a spark.
Thus they shall both burn together
And there will be none to quench them.

Observation Worksheet

Chapter Theme _________________________________________________________________

THE word which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Now it will come about that
   In the last days
   The mountain of the house of the LORD
   Will be established as the chief of the mountains,
   And will be raised above the hills;
   And all the nations will stream to it.

3 And many peoples will come and say,
   “Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
   To the house of the God of Jacob;
   That He may teach us concerning His ways
   And that we may walk in His paths.”
   For the law will go forth from Zion
   And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

4 And He will judge between the nations,
   And will render decisions for many peoples;
   And they will hammer their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.
   Nation will not lift up sword against nation,
   And never again will they learn war.

5 Come, house of Jacob, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

6 For You have abandoned Your people, the house of Jacob,
   Because they are filled with influences from the east,
   And they are soothsayers like the Philistines,
   And they strike bargains with the children of foreigners.
7 Their land has also been filled with silver and gold
And there is no end to their treasures;
Their land has also been filled with horses
And there is no end to their chariots.

8 Their land has also been filled with idols;
They worship the work of their hands,
That which their fingers have made.

9 So the common man has been humbled
And the man of importance has been abased,
But do not forgive them.

10 Enter the rock and hide in the dust
From the terror of the LORD and from the splendor of His majesty.

11 The proud look of man will be abased
And the loftiness of man will be humbled,
And the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.

12 For the LORD of hosts will have a day of reckoning
Against everyone who is proud and lofty
And against everyone who is lifted up,
That he may be abased.

13 And it will be against all the cedars of Lebanon that are lofty and lifted up,
Against all the oaks of Bashan,

14 Against all the lofty mountains,
Against all the hills that are lifted up,

15 Against every high tower,
Against every fortified wall,

16 Against all the ships of Tarshish
And against all the beautiful craft.

17 The pride of man will be humbled
And the loftiness of men will be abased;
And the LORD alone will be exalted in that day,

18 But the idols will completely vanish.

19 Men will go into caves of the rocks
And into holes of the ground
Before the terror of the LORD
And the splendor of His majesty,
When He arises to make the earth tremble.

20 In that day men will cast away to the moles and the bats
Their idols of silver and their idols of gold,
Which they made for themselves to worship,

21 In order to go into the caverns of the rocks and the clefts of the cliffs
Before the terror of the LORD and the splendor of His majesty,
When He arises to make the earth tremble.

22 Stop regarding man, whose breath of life is in his nostrils;
For why should he be esteemed?
