Stereo Earphones

Are you looking to buy a brand new set of headphones with superb sound quality?

Home Treasures Hub offers the JVC HARX500
headphones at their online store.

The product is the perfect listening device for gamers, music lovers, movie enthusiasts, and even individuals with hearing problems.

The headphones are equipped with the brand's Ear-Direct Structure that allows for more direct transmissions of powerful audio.

Another feature that you will surely appreciate is the Twist Action Structure that allows prolonged use without the usual strain.

To ensure both comfort and sound quality, the headphones' driver unit featuring a large 40mm high-quality neodymium magnet is supported by a cushioned headband.

The device's long cord is another boon. It is 3.5 meters or 11.48 feet in length, allowing you to attach the gold-plated plug to the back of a computer or gaming console and still have a significant amount of cord to allow free movements.
