How to handle embroidery thread

Cut the thread to a length that is easy to use. It will be easier to use 0.5m for detailed designs and 1m for continuous designs.

One #25 floss is made by loosely twisting 6 thin threads.

To make the thread bulge, pull it out one by one to loosen the thread, and use it after arranging the required number of threads for a beautiful stitch.

The #25 floss is made by loosely twisting 6 thin threads. Pull out some of these thin threads and call it 「〇 strands」.

- ① Fold the thread in half and pull out the required number of threads one by one from the pile.
- ② Align the threads.
- ③ Pass the end of the thread in a loop through the needle hole.

2. Before stitching

About the beginning and end of #25 floss.

● How to use thread

〈How to make a knot〉

If you are not accustomed to handling threads and needles, it will be easier to stitch if you make a knot.

As shown in the figure on the right, wind the thread 2 to 3 times on the needle and pull out the needle.

※ It is recommended to get used to the method of entwining the thread below.

〈How to thread the last eye of a stitch.〉

Leave 5 - 7 cm of thread at the beginning of the stitch, Thread the thread behind the stitch.

Tie knot at the end as shown in the figure, or thread some stitches through the back thread.

Stitches

ステッチ一覧

Outline S

Stitch from left to right along the pattern.
 Repeat from 1 to 2 and half stitch back.
 2 and 5 will be the same hole.

Straight S

Stitch the thread straight with the width of the stitch.

Satin S

Stitch evenly so that the threads do not overlap along the lines of the design.
 When stitching a round object, stitch from the center to the outside, and then stitch the rest.

French knot S

Wrap the thread twice around the needle that came out of 1. Insert the needle perpendicular to 2 and tighten the thread before pulling out the needle.

Lazy daisy S

Take out the needle from 1,2-in, 3-out and 4-in.

Stitch it softly so as not to pull the thread too much.

Fly S

Take out the needle in 1, scoop the cloth 2 and 3, put a thread on the needle, enter 4 and stitch so that it becomes a Y shape.
