

Quarantine Crafting

with

Supplies used :
Free 8x10 or 5x6.25 print
Click Sticks (9" for this size)
Miscellaneous supplies if doing a mini album

Welcome to day 5 of our Quarantine Crafting. Today's is easy and free. In fact, you can just print it off and do nothing else ;)! With everyone at home these past few weeks, it's getting a little hard to remember that HOME is the best place to be, when you'd rather get out and about for a bit, right?! I know I'm going a little stir crazy so we came up with this cute print..because HOME really is the BEST!

I decided to use it both as a decor piece and then I decided to track my home isolation experiences in the process, so I thought it would be fun to use this as the cover. So, it's offered in two colors and two sizes for you to choose from!

Quarantine Crafting

with

Click Sticks are the easiest way to swap out prints, kids artwork, personal art and more. Plus, we also offer these with pre-designed canvases if you aren't into coming up with your own ideas :)! Check out our Instagram @foundationsdecor and @fancypantsdesigns to see how it's as quick as a click--plus, they are super cool and modern!

Up next...a few ideas and images to start your own Quarantine Crafting mini album -scroll to the next page!

Quarantine Crafting

with

If you're more into documenting projects--especially this current situation, I also added a smaller version of the print to use as a mini album cover/starter!

To get started, I printed off any photos that I've taken during this quarantine time. I've also been saving up my favorite memes (because you need something to laugh at during this time :)) and printed them out to use in my album. I'm doing it with a binder ring so that I can add as I go--and I might end up needing a bigger ring before this is over--let's hope not though!

I found a coordinating blue paper and added a cute, scalloped trim to the bottom of the album cover, along with a hole punch to secure where the ring will be going through. Then, I just gathered miscellaneous odds and ends to add to my album!

Since I'm still in the process, I'll take photos along the way and share them via our social media. It would be amazing if you decided to join in and we share them as we go! Enjoy this little print and we'll see you for one more project tomorrow!