BODEGA VINÍCOLA

Do I need to make a reservation before my visit?

We ask you to please book your visit at least 72 hours in advance. From Friday to Sunday, you can visit our lake area without any reservation.

Subject to availability.

What happens on the tour and how long does it last?

The tour starts in our lounge and tasting bar, where Monte Xanic welcomes you to begin your experience learning about the winemaking process. In the fermentation room, you will get to see how we bring in the grapes during harvest season, crush them, and ferment them in stainless steel tanks. In the underground cellar, lined with natural rock walls, our French oak barrels rest, where the wine is aged for months at a time. The experience culminates when we uncork one of Monte Xanic's renowned wines. Total time: 30 minutes. The tour requires walking up and down staircases and standing on your feet.

Do I need to pay for my visit in advance?

For groups smaller than ten people, you do not need to pay in advance. Please make advance payment, however, for our Export Wine and Limited Edition wine tastings.

How can I pay?

Dress code?

Casual bohemian. Not high heels. Hat, sunglasses, and sunscreen recommended. We remind you that you will be out on the open countryside.

What is the best time to come and visit you?

No. We only sell wine, cheese boards, and still/carbonated water.

Do you have hotel rooms?

Right now, we do not offer any accommodation services.
