Helping you to create a healthy workplace

More than ever, organisations are operating in uncertain and challenging economic times, with the added pressure of operating with leaner workforces. It is therefore vital that organisations protect and look after their employees' well-being and health and make sure that their workforce is healthy, motivated and engaged.

The HEALTHY WORKPLACE PROJECT* from KIMBERLY-CLARK PROFESSIONAL* is an innovative approach to hand and washroom hygiene that helps employees understand, eliminate and prevent the spread of germs throughout their workplace.

The Project offers companies advice and practical support to enable them to install the best possible hygiene systems around the workplace and, most importantly, inspire staff to use them regularly – steps that could help prevent the spread of germs that cause a range of illnesses.
