

the malibu sofa

Homenature's signature sofa, and one of our most popular, the Malibu is a curved design that will fit more people than you'd think and, thanks to its semi-circular nature, enables and encourages easy conversation. This is a great choice if you want to float a sofa (versus having it against the wall), as it looks fantastic from all angles, and becomes the quiet star of any room. It's also a great value, and select sizes are in stock for immediate delivery.

Available in three standard lengths, with choice of leg finish, and optional slipcover.
