Eleonora Ferragatta is a first generation Italian and has been surrounded by art culture all of her life. For over 20 years she has specialized in oil portraits, murals, reproductions, and original designs.

Eleonora's traditional studies in the US and Rome, Italy have led her to work for various corporate clients. Her Wall Art and Home Décor have been featured in numerous retail stores and restaurants across the country, including Home Goods, Papa Gino's, and ART.com. To date, over 17,000 units of her original designs have been published.

Inspired by her love of NATURE, ART, & FASHION, Eleonora has transformed her original oil painting designs into an exclusive line of Woman's APPAREL, ACCESSORIES, & HOME DÉCOR products. Featuring limited edition luxury active wear, ready-to-wear, and Alta Moda quality collections.

"I feel blessed to have had the opportunity to share my art with the world in this way by partnering with some of the most talented makers and fellow creatives in the industry ... My mission is to create a Fashion Brand that supports thoughtful, sustainable, and eco-friendly production... offering an elegant array of wearable art pieces for all woman who enjoy developing and expressing their own personal style and unique looks that make lasting impressions."

Eleonora's fashion designs are currently available in Stonington, CT (by appointment showroom), online, and via her team of experienced Stylists who provide one-on-one personal styling services.

Eleonora's collections are also available in regional and national upscale boutiques across the east coast. For more information, visit www.eleonoraferragatta.com.
