NANCLARES Y PRIETO "DANDELION", 2022

Salty seaside, ripe lemon on the nose. Fresh, light yet loaded with lemony citrus and mandarin notes on a mineral streaked, sea-salt palate. Thirst quenching and zippy. Alberto Nanclares and Silvia Prieto make evocative Atlantic-influenced wines from 25-45 year old Albariño vines situated at sea level around the historic village for Albariño, Cambados. They use biodynamic, organic farming practices and a restrained hand in the cellar. The Dandelion wine ferments with native yeast in Stainless Steel tanks. THE OJAI VINEYARD "OJAI RED", NV

26.99

Pronounced "Oh-Hi", this non-vintage red wine is from The Ojai Vineyard who makes amazing vineyard specific wine. Since 1992 they've made the "Ojai Red" for their local market. It is a composite of their exclusive bottlings, made from what is left after racking - they combine & resettle and blend together in a sort of table wine style, though it's far from that! The bottling we have is rich with red and dark fruits on the nose, swirls of caramel, hints of forest floor. Palate is both vibrant and fruit driven, with solid tannic structure and sophistication. Dominated by Syrah, smoothed with Pinot Noir, with touches of Barbera.

"MEGAPHONE" VENTOUX, 2019

27.99

Deep black cherry, lavender, cassis, sweet caramel, vanilla whiffs. Palate is a focused dark berry core, embraced by minerals and cassis. The Brunier family had been producing Châteauneuf-du-Pape for more than a century before branching out and creating "Megaphone" in 2011 in the Ventoux region of the Rhone Valley. They acquired a 5-acre parcel, planning to blend it into one of their other wines, but realizing it was too "distinct and enchanting" to do this, they instead developed this wine. It is named in the spirit of their predominate family wines, Domaine du Vieux Télégraphe. 80% Grenache, 20% Syrah.
