

TARGETED SKIN

REFUND POLICY

We offer a full money back guarantee in the first 30 days if you don't love our product . Any skin care product can be returned, regardless of whether it has been used or not.

Our DNA Test is not refundable. Because your DNA does not change you will have the information forever and can utilize it for life!

Once placed, any order may be cancelled within three business days (72 business hours) from the date/time of the transaction (Five business days for Alaska residents and fifteen business days for residents of ND, age 65 or over). Please email or call our Customer Experience Team to cancel your order. After this time, our 30 day full refund policy goes into effect.

While we want you to love our products, we also want you to be happy with your skin care. Please contact support@targetedskin.com or 855-MY-TSKIN if you are unsatisfied and would like to return your product. Your card will be refunded once we receive the product in new and unused condition.
