The Jesus Studies

Let's face it: It can be hard for teenagers to live as Christ-followers in their day-to-day life. And a lot of this has to do with other people's perceptions of what it means to be a Christian. The world has so much to say about who Christ-followers are, most of it misguided. How can teenagers accurately portray who they are in Christ? According to Jesus, one of the most effective ways can be summed up in one phrase: loving others.

Jesus and Loving Others will help you teach your students to that loving others is second only to loving God; that it takes a heart after Christ's to love those who don't like us; that Jesus desires for His people to actively show love to the poor and needy; and that as Christ-followers, their very identity is to be defined by their love for others.

Teach Jesus and Loving Others to your students and help challenge them to embrace a life of loving others.
