GOD'S STUFF, NOT OURS

The Jesus Studies

Our culture puts a tremendous value on having stuff. And not just on having stuff, but being emotionally attached to our stuff. This message is played out in so many different aspects of our lives. We're told a certain car will make us happy. A certain brand will make us cool. A certain gadget will make us fulfilled. And so many of us buy into these messages wholeheartedly. Especially our teenagers. Good thing Jesus had a lot to say about this.

Jesus and Stuff will help you teach your students that it's impossible to both love their stuff and truly love God; that if their love for their stuff comes between their devotion to God, they're doing it all wrong; that no matter how much stuff they have, it doesn't add any real meaning to their life; and that they have to learn to see their stuff as God's to be used as He sees fit.

Teach Jesus and Stuff to help students embrace a Christ-centered attitude toward their stuff.
