“Who is this God”

By

Jonathan Skaggs and Emily Willson

What	This is a piece of spoken word written in verse form attempting to describe the splendor, majesty and Glory of God knowing it will fall short but trying anyways.
Who	3 Actors
Why	Isaiah 40: 12-15
Time	Approximately 5 minutes

ACTOR 1

Who is this God who is vast, omnipotent, and great? Speaking life into existence, commanding our souls to awake

ACTOR 2

Who has measured the waters in the hollow of God's hand and marked off the heavens with an infinite span,

ACTOR 3

enclosed the dust of the earth in a great measure, and weighed the mountains in scales and the hills with leisure?

ACTOR 2

Who could direct the spirit of the Lord, or encompass His wisdom on their own accord?

ACTOR 3

Whom could he possibly consult for enlightenment, Or show Him the path of justice with entitlement?

ACTOR 1

Who taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding? Even the nations are like a drop from a bucket not even close to comparing,

ACTOR 2

We serve a God who has appeared to us in ways beyond our prayers Like a bush slowly burning with an ember glare

ACTOR 3

Or a cloud of bright fire descending from thin air

ACTOR 1

Or though manna raining down providing hope for the weary to share

ACTOR 3

Eternal

ACTOR 2

And infinite

ACTOR 1

And mighty in power

ACTOR 3

Gracious

ACTOR 2

And just

ACTOR 1

And forgiving despite sin that is ours

ACTOR 3

Invoking wonder

ACTOR 2

And awe

ACTOR 1

And unmeasurable mercy

ACTOR 2

Who is this God that could love so fiercely something this earthly?
