Who We Are
Coalatree is run by a team of folks who love getting outside. We design eco-minded accessories and apparel for the adventurer in everyone, from athletes and photographers to your city slickers and weekend warriors.

What We Do
It’s our passion to bring elements of the outdoors and the city life together. Whether you’re summiting the tallest peaks or at the tavern with friends, our products are practical, stylish, and functional. Being ready for anything is what we’re all about.

Environmental Responsibility
In every step of the design, manufacturing, and shipping process, we look for ways to be more sustainable and minimize our impact. Environmental responsibility is central to our

"Damn near perfect."

"Impressively durable."

"A long-lasting pair of outdoor minded shorts for just about any use."

Don't Just Take Our Word:

Outside

Climbing
We took our favorite pants and made them summer ready. Trailhead shorts are waterproof, breathable, and tear-resistant. They are made from four-way stretch ripstop nylon fabric with antimicrobial features. They pack down into their front pocket for travel or for use as a small pillow.

Decaf Denim

After four years of in-depth design and engineering, we have finally hit our mark; The Decaf Denim is here. The Decaf Denim is the perfect combination of technical jeans, maximum comfort, and sustainable manufacturing. In addition to being made from recycled materials, we also incorporate a waterless dye method, saving millions of gallons of waste water.

Decaf Denim available in Slim and Regular fit, Indigo and Black.
Evolution Joggers

We are back with the perfect pair to our Evolution Hoodie; the Evolution Joggers. Like our hoodie, they are made from recycled coffee grounds, use a waterless dye technique, and are so soft, you'll want to live in them. Equipped with hidden zipper pockets, they make travel days carefree and pickpocketing a thing of the past.

The Evolution Hoodie

Spent coffee grounds are mixed & melted down with recycled plastic bottles to create the fibers for this incredible Evolution Hoodie. Featuring a hidden zippered pouch to securely stash your valuables, plus two organizer pockets and a hanging loop for keys.
Baseline Layer
Made from recycled plastic and coffee grounds, the Baseline is a lightweight, mid layer fleece can be used year-round. Whether you’re at your home office, on the slopes, at your local climbing gym, virtual spin class, or doing yoga, the Baseline will become your new go-to layer. In addition to being made from recycled materials, this fleece won’t shed any micro plastics, keeping our water systems free of plastic waste.

Our Giveback

When Coalatree was founded in 2010, one of our goals was to give back to the environment and to our community. Those goals ring true today more than ever, and your support makes these programs possible. Here’s what we’re doing to make a difference.

Adopt-A-Native-Elder

In partnership with the Adopt-A-Native-Elder Program, 10% of the sales of our headdress stickers will go directly to supporting a Navajo Elder in need.

Caring for Our Canyons

We’ve partnered with local environmental groups to build and maintain hiking and biking trails, remove graffiti from climbing crags, remove trash, and more.

Blankets for the Homeless

Surplus fabric from our Kachula blankets are re-purposed into warm blankets, and we’ve distributed hundreds of blankets to the needy.
