

Open Ended Questions

Open ended questions help children learn how to use language in conversations, convey their feelings and provide solutions. Here is a list of questions to ask your children throughout the day:

- How did you do _____?
- What would happen if _____?
- What did it look/feel/sound/taste/smell like?
- Why is _____ your favorite _____?
- What did you make _____ with?

- Why do you think _____?
- How do you know that _____?
- What would you do if _____?
- Is there anything you would change about _____?
- What was the first thing you did to make _____?
- What changes would you make to _____?
- How many ways can you _____?
- What would happen if _____ happened again?
