

RAYMOND WEIL

GENEVE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 2018

INTRODUCING JANE CHO for Raymond Weil

Jane Cho is a new breed of crossover musician who possesses a unique combination of musical prowess, elegance, commanding stage presence and an original musical sensibility, giving her the ability to appeal to and entertain audiences of any age and background.

A classically trained violinist, Jane received numerous awards and scholarships throughout the course of her studies and since enjoyed success as a solo violinist. Jane's performances have taken her to world-famous venues including Sydney's Opera House and Olympic Stadium and London's Wembley Arena.

Jane has performed at special events around the world for corporate and sporting audiences, politicians and royalty. Appearing in support for West End stars Michael Crawford, Dame Judy Dench and Michael Ball, with recording artists Guy Sebastian and Mika, Jane has also shared the bill with Snoop Dogg.

Jane wears Raymond Weil Shine with diamonds in stainless steel.

About Raymond Weil Shine

Revamped in 2016 after a brief absence since its initial launch in 2005, the shine ladies' quartz collection resurfaces with a new, bold look.

The ever-successful shine collection represents a modern spin on a classic style with its silver dial and elegant Roman numerals.

Alongside its classic metal bracelet, it comes with an interchangeable satin strap sets to effortlessly transform your ensemble from day to night.

This shine is a horological jewel and can adapt in the blink of an eye to suit your needs.
