The Christmas Story

Mary and Joseph had to visit Bethlehem and there, Jesus would be born.

Because there was no room for them anywhere in town, Jesus was born in a stable, surrounded by the animals.

An angel told the shepherds that this special baby was Jesus Christ the Lord.

The excited shepherds ran to the stable to see the baby for themselves.

The wise men led the shepherds to Baby Jesus. They gave him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrror because he was so special.
