2017 PRESENTING ARTIST: NOEL

Noel is the living embodiment of passion and talent required by all great artists, which is reflected in his ever-evolving work. He is recognized as one of a small number of artists whom Miami's ascendancy to the world cultural stage is reflected in the lifetime of his career. His style is an amalgam of structure and dreams, reality and mythology, the sensual and the divine. Collectively, the tapestry of his work creates an artistic uniqueness that is characteristic of all great artists.

Born in Cuba, at an early age Noel took painting and drawing classes in Havana's Academy of San Alejandro. Some of his commission for private and corporate collections include; murals for the Ritz Plaza Hotel in Miami Beach, Grove Isle Hotel in Coconut Grove, for which he also created the fountain at its entrance. He also created the murals for San Diego's Paradise Point Hotel. Argentinian author Alicia Borinsky selected two of Noel's paintings for her book jackets. In 1989 he was commissioned to create a portrait of the late Eartha Kitt. His work has also appeared in major motion pictures, and he served on the Fine Arts Board of the City of Miami Beach from 1994 to 1997. He has been commissioned by Absolut Vodka, the Boston AIDS Action Committee, New York's AIDS Relief Fund, Care Resource, and other national clients. In 2001 Noel was asked to create the panel on behalf of Miami in the National AIDS Quilt Display. His works has generated thousands of dollars for AIDS Nationwide. The City of Miami Beach selected Noel in 2002 to design five Flamingos for the Art in Public Places Flamingo Project. Noel has received national recognition with profiles and features in numerous magazines, newspapers, television and films. DK Art Publishing now represents Noel's work. As a constant personal quest Noel's work is always evolving, from techniques and mediums to subject matter, capturing the attention of youthful art enthusiasts and educated collectors.

Our Premier (Main) sponsor will be thanked with this year's Official Painting by our Representing Artist: NOEL. Plus, the principal sponsor will also receive the matching study for the painting; valued gifts worth around $20,000!

ARTUNDRESSED 2017

[WHO] ES Arts Group presents the Seventh Annual "Creative Nude Art" Weekend Festival, namely ARTundressed. [WHAT] Celebrating art in its most creative, original, sensual, and bared core, ARTundressed is showcasing more than 120 international artists and performers in South Florida's Most Provocative Art Event. Curated by knowledgeable art experts, the ARTundressed Festival displays both the humorous and the sensual aspects of creative nude art, and also features performance art, chic fashion, live music, and cutting-edge visuals. Scheduled [WHEN] to take place during the weekend of May 18, 19, 20, 2017 at [WHERE] PRIVATE KEY in the Wynwood Art District (Miami, FL), [WHY] this unique erogenous event hopes to awaken -- and heighten -- Miami's senses and spirits unlike any other art show in South Florida.

CREATIVE NUDE ART FESTIVAL

ARTundressed is coined as a "Creative Nude Art Exhibition" based on the simple fact that, although the event encompasses a lot more attractions than just the art exhibition, the principal element of its essence is depicted by high-quality, unique, provocative and very creative work of art. The principal core of the exhibited talents consists of international artists and photographers who are established and well-respected amongst the nude art community. The art selection is curated virtually by prominent gallery owners, museums directors, and experienced art curators worldwide.

The Festival exhibits a wide range of art medium covering: Fine Art, Photography, Digital Art, Sculptures, Mixed Media, Short Films, Performance Arts, Eros Poetry, Art installations, Live Photo Contest, Interactive Art, Vendors and much more!

DEMOGRAPHICS

The ARTundressed event attracts all races, males, females, the young, the middle-aged, the older folks, and everyone else in between who consider themselves to be an “Open-minded” individual. Playing a major role in covering such a wide demographic range is the art selection to be exhibited. It has something for everyone, and the universal subject matter ranges from humorous to though-provoking covering all sexuality.

This international event consists of a large number of participating artists that resides in many different countries all throughout the world. In the past few years, we’ve amassed a very impressive database of artists and art enthusiasts worldwide. Although we expect attendees from throughout the United States and other countries we are primarily focusing on the residents of the Tri-State Metropolitan Areas (FL), ranging from 21 – 65 years old. With close to 6 million inhabitants, this Metropolitan designated area is comprised of the three most populous counties in Florida, namely Miami, Broward, and Palm Beach; all of them are experiencing exponential growth in the entertainment industry and art market for the past few years consistently.

Since its inception, this event has toured many different countries and numerous cities from all over the world, including Miami, New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Dallas, Berlin (Germany), as well as Montreal and Toronto (Canada).
