

These paintings are made in eureka-ecstatic moments free from irony.

I draw the brush towards me, the color trails shift and granulate.

I don't plan beyond the first brushstroke and stop
if I feel impatient or unsettled.