STEPS:

1. Cut the sock right above the heel (see Pic 1)
2. Stuff the toe of the sock, then tie tightly with black yarn/string (see Pic 2)
3. Stuff the rest of the sock until it creates a spider-like bulbous bottom portion. Tie it off (see Pic 3)
4. Take the tube portion of the sock and tie off the cut end (see Pic 4)
5. Stuff the tied end similar to step 2, then pull the strings back, wrap the sock around the tied part, then tie closed (see Pic 5)
6. Stuff the remaining portion of the sock similar to step 3, and tie it closed
7. Take the tied portions of both socks and fold them in toward the center tie, on the bottom side (see Pic 6)

STEPS CONT:

8. Wrap one pipe cleaner around the center of the spider, twist tight and point legs to the side and slightly toward the head (see Pic 7)
9. Wrap a second pipe cleaner around the center, then point legs upward toward head (see Pic 8)
10. Slip the third pipe cleaner beneath the fold created from bending the folded end toward the center. Wrap the pipe cleaner around the fold and then point the legs to the side and toward the bottom (see Pic 9)
11. Take the fourth pipe cleaner and either slip it through the fold or poke it through the fabric below the third pipe cleaner. Twist and then point the legs toward the bottom (see Pic 10)
12. Fold the very tips of the pipe cleaners down (see Pic 11)
13. Paint a red hourglass on the back using fabric paint (see Pic 12)
14. Glue on the googly eyes (see Pic 12)
