

Retail and Wholesale Order Fulfillment Stylist – San Carlos, CA

Come join our family business in this unique role! Join team Destira to pull, pack, process and ship orders. Work alongside company owners, and our awesome design, production, service and fulfillment teams. Get ready to contribute, learn and make a difference in our growing company and positive, entrepreneurial environment. We're a mother-sister owned and run company, and proudly manufacture in Los Angeles, California. Position allows for flexible hours to fit your unique schedule!

You'll spend about half your time working with product, pulling and returning garments to and from our inventory bins and inbound and outbound packages, and then half your time on the computer accurately scanning and checking in/out inventory and processing and packing shipments.

We're looking for positive, hardworking, detail-oriented individuals with administrative assistance or receptionist experience or skill set, to join our order fulfillment team in San Carlos, California.

You'll work within a team to organize inventory, pull, pack and ship retail and wholesale orders, including gymnastics leotards, matching shorts and accessories, for gymnasts and gymnastics clubs across the country. Most tenured teammates in this role are college students and moms, who prioritize flexibility and company fit and culture. This job requires ability to lift medium sizes boxes.

Our office is a combined warehouse and computer office space - light and bright and filled with positive energy, and floor to ceiling leotards!

Here's what employees say about working in this role: "I love being part of a team," "my schedule is so flexible," "my time is divided between computer work, and creative active work so it never gets boring," "it's fun to organize and work with apparel and clothing," and "it feels good to contribute to a brand and team that cares." If these words resonate with you, please apply! Destira works hard to foster self-esteem and self-expression for customers and employees alike.

We believe in equal right and opportunities for all people, without regard to race, age, religion, gender, color, creed, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, or military status.
