Property & Interior Styling

Property & Interior Styling

Allow the refined reputation of Graham Geddes for sophistication to guide you towards achieving your desired market outcomes.

Our adept and seasoned stylists are skilled at working with your existing furniture or can elevate an empty space through a comprehensive property presentation package. Moreover, our in-house stylists are prepared to assist you in updating, refreshing, or perfecting your interior decor.

We also provide a distinctive collection of antique and classically inspired furniture, architectural pieces, and decorative objects available

Our comprehensive property presentation package encompasses the meticulous selection, curation, and installation of all essential items to harmonize with every facet of your home or apartment.

From striking mirrors, antique screens, and prints to the complete setup of beds, linens, bedheads, and bathroom essentials, we ensure a comprehensive approach to styling.

We also offer outdoor furniture, architectural elements, garden urns for landscaping, installation of contemporary and classical artworks, and an array of decorative items to imbue your living space with a sense of warmth and personal touch.

Please feel free to reach out to us for a complimentary consultation or to learn more about our services.
