

Learning about Marine Life- Sea Turtles (Chelonioida)

There are seven different species of turtles that swim our oceans and seas.

Female turtles return to their place of birth to lay their eggs on the beach.

Different species of turtles like to feed on different things, ranging from jellyfish to crabs.

Sea turtles can usually be found in nearly all our seas and oceans.