

The 1872 Clipper Tea Co.

Serving premium farm-to-cup specialty teas,
150 years and beyond

“Each cup of tea represents an imaginary voyage.” – Catherine Douzel

“At The 1872 Clipper Tea Co., we aim to kindle curiosity for tea by providing rich, exploratory experiences that bring people together.”

Rehan Amarasuriya
Director of The 1872 Clipper Tea Co.

Brand Story

For five generations, The 1872 Clipper Tea Co. is Singapore’s earliest tea producer, blender and retailer, providing premium farm-to-cup specialty teas for more than 150 years. Since its beginning at a jewellery boutique along High Street in 1872, the brand continues to be widely appreciated for its consistency in quality, signature aroma and refined taste. It also remains committed to sourcing and offering the finest teas from all corners of the world.

The heritage brand empowers the lives of Sri Lanka’s tea pluckers by championing fair living wages, works closely with ethical partners, specialises in tea technology and drives innovative efforts towards a sustainable global tea industry.

Brewing Guide

Hot Tea

Black Tea

Black teas are distinguished by the darker hue and stronger taste as a result of oxidation it undergoes during processing.

2 - 3 mins

96°C - 98°C

Green Tea

Green teas are generally processed through steaming or pan-frying in order to stop the oxidation process directly after plucking.

2 - 3 mins

85°C - 90°C

Oolong Tea

Oolong teas are semi-oxidised, and often known to have the full-bodied nature of a black tea, and accompanied with brightness often of green tea.

2 - 3 mins

90°C - 95°C

Tisanes

Tisanes are herbal and fruit infusions that are 100% caffeine free.

5 - 7 mins

96°C - 98°C

Cold Brew Tea

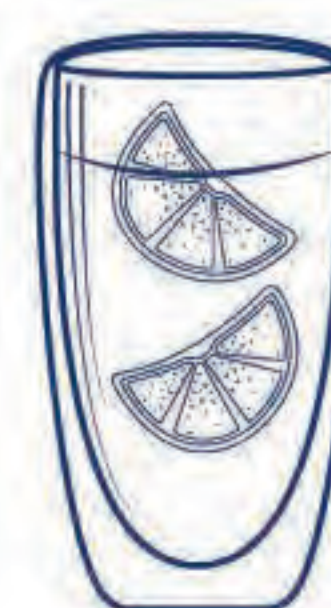

1. Pour 1 litre of room temperature or cold water in a jug and place 1 cold brew sachet in.

2. Store jug in refrigerator and steep for 6 to 8 hours, depending on the desired strength of tea.

3. Once the time is up, remove the tea sachet and serve. Enjoy!

Spruce it up by adding honey, citrus fruits or mint leaves.
