Direct to consumer business model. Quality ebikes.

Founded by three Forbes and Inc Magazine 30 Under 30 recipients, Rad Power Bikes is an electric bike manufacturer offering direct to consumer pricing on electric bikes that are designed by our team in Seattle.

Our bikes are a top choice of E-bike, especially for rental fleets, because of our lower cost, lower maintenance, and high return on investment. Our bikes are extremely reliable and rock solid.

RadRhino

Popular with the commuter and outdoor enthusiasts, the RadRhino is a rugged approach to ebikes. With off road capability, high torque motor, and an awesome look. It will conquer almost any terrain and looks bad to the bone. Great for getting to places normal bikes can't.
