

WORLD MYTHOLOGY COURSE OUTLINE (1 SEMESTER)

Introduction: Have you always wanted to teach a top-notch world mythology course but didn't know where to start? This day-by-day outline will show you exactly how I run my own semester-long world mythology course, which includes units on Mesopotamian, Egyptian, and Norse mythology, the legends of King Arthur and Robin Hood, and diverse myths from each and every corner of the globe. All the materials on this outline are either available as free downloads on my website CreativeEnglishTeacher.com or as sale items in the website store. If you would like to buy all of the materials at once, the World Myth Bundle, bundles them into a single purchase.

Scope and Sequence: The course consists of 90 planned days of instruction. Numbers appearing to the left of assignment titles indicate the days of instruction.

Resources: A full list of resources used in this outline appears at the end of the document. The script-stories listed here come from volumes of the Reaching Olympus series while other selections are from World Mythology for Beginners. All of the necessary resources can be purchased in the World Myth Bundle available in our website store:

Using Script-Stories in the Classroom: Each volume within the Reaching Olympus series contains an introduction outlining practices for using script-stories in the classroom.

- Anticipatory Set: Each script-story includes a series of anticipatory questions to get students engaged in the content of the story.
- Assessment: Each script-story contains five recall questions that can be used as a post-script-story quiz.
- Quizzes and Exams: Several other quizzes and exams appear on the course outline, and these are also available for sale on the website or as part of the World Myth Bundle.
