

Name: _____ Hour: _____

Story: " _____ "

1. How would you describe the tone of the story?
2. What foreshadowing is present in the story?
3. What is an example of dramatic irony or situational irony in the story?
4. What is an example of imagery (description that appeals to the senses)?
5. What point of view is the story told from?
6. What would you say the climax of the story is?
7. What items or people in the story could be symbols for other ideas?
8. What is the main conflict of the story?
9. Is there any direct or indirect characterization in the story?
10. Were there any details that you had to infer about the story?

DICTION/VOCABULARY (Define 5 words that you did not know previously.)

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

LITERARY TERMS: (Find 5 examples of 5 different literary terms within the text.)

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

THEME: What theme do you think the text has? (A theme is a life-lesson or overall idea that you can take away from the work.)