Interior Designers & Decorators + Art Acacia advisor:

Working with an art advisor has several benefits:

- Exposure to new galleries and new artists you have never worked with before - most contemporary art ideas in your designs
- New styles, subjects and ideas straight from contemporary art fairs and recent shows
- Professional advice on art quality and price - your art purchase will retain value for your clients over time
- More time for you while art acquisition, logistic and other operations related to artworks are managed by someone else
- We pass all trade discounts from galleries and artists studios to you, minimizing costs of our services (sometimes to zero)
