LAMBETH, England - March 6, 2019 - PRLog -- Lento of London is excited to announce the launch of their Italian wine and cheese tasting workshops with a difference.

Enjoy unique Italian wines and cheeses, and meeting new people all whilst learning the art of pairing wine with food with Lento of London's resident Italian, Luca.

Put aside your preconceptions of traditional, stuffy, formal wine tasting workshops. Lento of London will not lecture you on bamboozling scientific wine facts or make you feel uncomfortable for knowing little about wine. The enjoyment of wine is personal and Lento of London want to help you discover more about your personal taste at the same time as teaching you some really simple principles to successfully pair wine with food.

If you're looking for a fun, interactive and informal way to learn more about wine and how to pair it with food whilst meeting new people then Lento of London's wine and cheese tasting workshops are for you.

In addition to running public workshops, Lento of London can also create a unique experience around your needs whether it be for corporate entertainment or a private gathering in your home.
