IT ALL STARTED WITH A DREAM

Cari Phelps, an award-winning designer and branding expert based in Savannah, dreamed that she designed a package of bath salts for a client with an emphasis on environmental sustainability. When she woke up the next morning, she started doing research and decided to make her dream a reality.

Cari founded Salacia Salts in 2012, armed with a commitment to environmental conservation, natural beauty and holistic health. Under her leadership, Salacia Salts creates top-quality bath and beauty products using environmentally responsible ingredients and packaging. All items are free from sulfates, colorants and parabens, ideal for people with sensitive skin or who are looking for healthy alternatives to oils and chemicals found in traditional body care. We care about educating people about the products they put on their skin, and we care about how our packaging affects the Earth's land and seas. All of our packaged products are recyclable and we use post-consumer recycled packaging whenever possible.

All items are made in Savannah, GA and are inspired by native Southern botanicals, the spirit of the ocean and chic coastal style.

WHO IS SALACIA?

THE ROMAN SEA GODDESS SALACIA SERVES AS THE INSPIRATION FOR SALACIA SALTS

According to Roman mythology, Salacia traveled through the ocean on a pearl-shell chariot pulled by seahorses and dolphins. Salacia, the wife of Neptune, evokes the spirit of the open sea and the female energy of the ocean. Her name is derived from the Latin word "sal," which means salt. Salt once served as a precious commodity in cultures around the globe.

Today, Salacia Salts is delighted to share these riches with a wide audience. Let Salacia relax your body and lift your spirit. Experience the nurturing power of the sea.

The Salacia Salt Studio functions as a production studio and gift shop. Customers can take skin care making workshops, enjoy behind the scenes studio tours, test out our products and of course shop the entire collection of Salacia products.

Located just a block from Forsyth Park in Savannah, the Salt Studio is the perfect location for travelers looking for a quintessential Savannah experience or locals who want to enjoy the city and shop. Our workshops are great for bachelorette parties, bridal showers, or birthday parties.

Having our own gift shop gives us real, first-hand knowledge of what retailers desire in a skin care collection, from the products themselves, to signage and presentation.
