MIRU

TAILORED ELEGANCE
MEETS FUNCTION

Nestled in The St. Regis Chicago, Miru offers a modern Japanese dining experience complemented by breathtaking Lake Michigan, Navy Pier, and the Chicago River views. For such a setting, the attire needed to be distinctive and practical.

The staff at Miru dons our unlined, unstructured Navy Blazer crafted from a soft yet durable stretch twill, facilitating both comfort and an unimpeded range of motion. Inspired by Japanese workwear, it adapts to casual and formal aesthetics, suitable for any occasion or task.

A distinct custom vest was crafted for servers, providing a seamless blend of traditional and contemporary styles, underscoring Miru's commitment to presenting its brand through every detail. The uniforms collectively enhance the dining atmosphere, offering a sartorial elegance synonymous with the exquisite experiences Miru curates for its patrons.

BISHOP'S LODGE

WOVEN TRADITIONS: BLENDING
LEGACY AND MODERNITY

Bishop's Lodge, ensconced in the art-laden sanctuary of Santa Fe, is a living testament to the nexus of culture and nature. This historic retreat, perched amidst 317 pristine acres at the base of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains, breathes the spirit of New Mexico through its walls.

Our collaboration with Bishop's Lodge presented a unique challenge: crafting uniforms that would reflect the heritage of this storied retreat and the aesthetic of modern luxury. Drawing inspiration from the vibrant turquoise trails and terracotta-adorned architecture, our team envisioned attire that would seamlessly integrate with the serene landscape and the rich artistic legacy of Santa Fe.

The resulting ensembles, conceived with meticulous precision, subtly echo the indigenous patterns and earthy palettes, all while ensuring durability and comfort for the staff. These uniforms don't just dress the team; they tell a story - a narrative of Bishop's Lodge's past, its vibrant present, and the future it seeks to shape.

Merch & Collab

Delving deep into the essence of brand identities, we craft merchandise beyond just logos on fabrics. Each piece mirrors the soul and narrative of your brand. With an emphasis on quality, fit, and enduring relevance, entrust us to translate your brand's identity into timeless merchandise pieces. Wear your story.

KASAMA

CRAFTING CULINARY IDENTITY
BEYOND THE PLATE

Located in the heart of Chicago's East Village, Kasama delights with its modern take on Filipino classics. Yet, the vision for Kasama didn't just rest on its menu but extended into a tangible brand statement.

Joining forces with STOCK, an exclusive line of merchandise was conceived: striking corduroy caps and a sophisticated navy bowling shirt with contrast piping. The standout feature? The "Kasama" chain-stitched elegantly, symbolizing a seamless blend of branding and design.

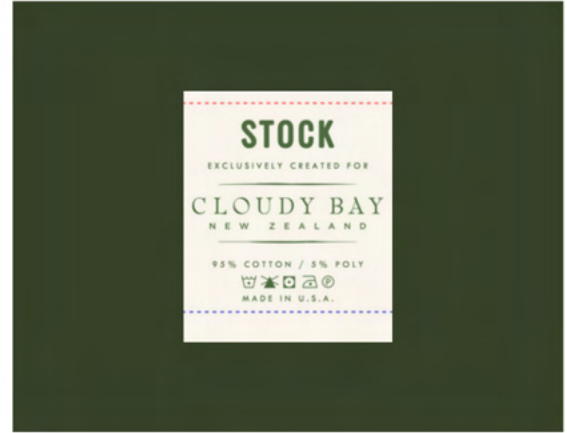

This collaborative endeavor exemplifies how a culinary gem, paired with detail-oriented design, creates more than just merchandise—it crafts a story.

THE BEAR

The story of the collaboration that birthed custom duffel bags and woven blankets for the cast and crew of FX's The Bear is a tale woven with threads of admiration, creativity, and camaraderie. It all began with a simple gesture that stemmed from admiration for the show's sincere homage to our hometown of Chicago, and the hospitality scene that defines it.

Miller High Life, renowned for its illustrious past, merges with contemporary design insights for the High Life Heritage Collection. The collaboration reimagines the 1920s flair, with inspirations drawn directly from historic archive pieces.

The lineup, featuring vintage delivery jackets, detailed rugby shirts, and finely constructed wool ball caps, is a testament to enduring elegance. Each article is a wearable and a nod to a legacy interwoven with style and significance.

With every piece, the indelible mark of Miller High Life's storied journey is seamlessly carried into today's fashion landscape.
