

PLANNING FOR

Child Care

IN California

Chapters at a Glance

Part I

Understanding Child Care

1	Why Plan for Child Care?	3
2	Child Care—What It Is, What It Is Not	11
3	The Child Care System	19
4	Who Plans for Child Care	27
5	Community Child Care Planning—Where to Start	33

Part II

Accommodating Child Care

6	The Role Cities and Counties Can Play	43
7	General Plans as a Policy Basis for Facilities and Services	67
8	Land Use Compatibility	83
9	Child Care-Friendly Zoning Ordinances and Permitting Processes	99

Part III

Linking Child Care and Community Development

10	Child Care Center Development Factors and Solutions	121
11	Housing and Child Care	137
12	Child Care and Transportation	147
13	Transit-Oriented Development and Transit Villages	151
14	Work-Site Child Care Centers	155
15	Other Child Care Models and Partnerships	161
16	Conclusion	163

Contents

Preface	xv	Acknowledgments	xxi
About the author	xix	Credits	xxiii

Part I

Understanding Child Care

chapter 1

Why Plan for Child Care? / 3

Benefits of Formal Licensed Child Care to a Community	3
The Demand for Child Care	5
Child Care Supply	6
Failure of Market Forces	6
Child Care Facility Development Challenges	7
Planners' Role in Building Community	8
Where to Start	9

chapter 2

Child Care— What It Is, What It Is Not / 11

Family Child Care Home Licenses	12
Child Care Center Licenses	13
“License-Exempt” Programs	14
Child Care Licensing in California: Basic Requirements	15
How to Become Licensed	16
Other State and Local Regulation	16

chapter 3

The Child Care System / 19

Who Operates Child Care Programs?	19
How Is Child Care Funded?	20
What Children or Families Are Served?	21
Where Are the Programs Located?	21
Who Determines the Content, Philosophy, or Curricula of Programs?	22
“Child Care” and “Early Childhood Education (Preschool)”— Is There a Difference?	23
Merging Disciplines?	24
“Preschool for All”	26

chapter 4

Who Plans for Child Care / 27

Child Care Coordinators	27
Local Child Care Planning Councils	28
Agencies, Community Consortia, and Collaboratives	29
Linking Child Care Planning with Broader Community Planning	30

Contents

The “Local Investment in Child Care” Project	30
The Role of City Planners	31
The Role of Public Officials in Planning for Child Care	32

chapter 5

Community Child Care Planning— Where to Start / 33

Child Care Needs Assessments	33
Child Care Mapping	34
Sources of Lists of Child Care Facilities	37
Department of Social Services/ Community Care Licensing	37
Child Care Resource and Referral Agencies	37
More Resources for Planners	38
Other Planning Challenges	38
Geographic, Demographic, and Economic Factors	38
Low-Income Neighborhoods	39

Part II

Accommodating Child Care

chapter 6

The Role Cities and Counties Can Play / 43

Provider of Direct Services: Child Care and Early Education	44
Provider of Funding for Child Care and Early Education	46
Community Development Block Grant	46
Redevelopment Funds	47
General Funds and Other Sources	48
Strings Attached to Public Funds	48
Provider of Space for Child Care Programs	49
Buildings	49
Factors to Consider	50
Choosing an Operator	50
Lease or Use Agreements	51
Land Dedication or Lease	51
Being a Model Employer: Addressing Employee Child Care Needs	53
Facilitating and Coordinating Child Care	55
City and County Child Care Coordinators	55
Other Child Care Capacity-Building Strategies	57
Child Care Initiative Project	57
Exempt Provider Training Project	58
Faith-Based Child Care Initiative	58

Contents

Facilitating and Coordinating Child Care continued
Working with Developers	59
Development Impact Fees	60
Development Agreements	61
Incentives	63
Levels of Local Government Support	64
chapter 7
General Plans as a Policy Basis for Facilities and Services / 67
Why Include Child Care in the General Plan?	67
Relationship to Other Plans	68
How Can Child Care Be Addressed in the General Plan?	69
Background Information—Existing Conditions	69
Separate Element or Incorporated in Other Elements?
Child Care Elements	70
Inclusion of Child Care in Mandatory and/or Optional Elements	72
Examples of Child Care Policies in General Plan Elements	73
Land Use Element	73
Circulation/Transportation Element	74
Housing Element	75
Conservation/Open Space/Environmental Resources Element	76
Economic Development Element	76
Public Facilities Element	77
Recreational, Educational and Community Services Element	79
Examples of Child Care Policies in General Plan Elements continued
Youth and Families Element	80
Youth, Families, Seniors, and Health Element	81
Summary	82
chapter 8
Land Use Compatibility / 83
Where Should Child Care Centers Be Located?
Which Zones Are Appropriate?	83
Land Use Impacts of Child Care	85
Traffic	86
Parking	87
Noise	90
Other concerns	95
Concentration of Child Care Facilities	95
Effect on Property Values	95
Commercial Use in a Residential Neighborhood	95
Child Care and NIMBY-ism	96
How Planners Can Help	97
chapter 9
Child Care-Friendly Zoning Ordinances and Permitting Processes / 99
Reducing Barriers to Child Care Development	99
Zoning Codes	101
Definitions	101
Permit Requirements	102
Treatment of Family Child Care Homes and California’s Preemption Law	103

Contents

Other Permits and Requirements	106
Fire Clearances and Permits	106
Business Licenses/Taxes	107
Streamlining Permit Processes	107
Information Dissemination	109
Child Care Start-up Guide	110
Child Care Zoning Chart	111
Helping the Child Care Project Applicant: A Script for Planners	111
Restrictive Covenants and Child Care	114
What They Are	114
Restrictive Covenants and Child Care	114
Family Child Care Homes in Residential Developments	114
Securing Space for Child Care with Restrictive Covenants	116
Planners' Role	116
Family Child Care Homes in Rental Property	116

Part III

Linking Child Care and Community Development

chapter 10

Child Care Center Development Factors and Solutions / 121

Child Care Center Space Needs: Buildings	122
Child Care Center Space Needs: Playgrounds	126
Site Size and Layout	127
Disability Access Requirements	127
Cost of Building Child Care Centers	128
Solutions to Space and Design Challenges	129
Working with Developers and Architects	131
Use of Modular Buildings	132
Development and Financing Resources	134
Locating/Siting Child Care Centers: Logistical and Programmatic Connections	136
School-Age Child Care: A Special Case	136

chapter 11

Housing and Child Care / 137

The Housing/Child Care Link	137
New Communities, Infill, or Redevelopment Projects	138
Child Care Centers: Space Needs and Design Issues	140

Contents

Family Child Care Homes: Space Needs and Design Issues	141
Involving Child Care Experts	141
Financial Challenges and Incentives	142
Affordable Housing	143
Market-Rate Housing	144
Child Care with Housing Units	145

chapter 12

Child Care and Transportation / 147

What’s the Connection?	147
Public Transit Use	148
Solutions and Partners	148
Child Care at Transit Stations or Hubs	149
Child Care as Traffic Mitigation	150

chapter 13

Transit-Oriented Development and Transit Villages / 151

Ohlone-Chynoweth Light-Rail Station Area, San Jose	152
Fruitvale BART Transit Village, Oakland	152
Watsonville Transit Center	152
San Diego Trolley	153

chapter 14

Work-Site Child Care Centers / 155

Employer-Supported Child Care	155
Developer-Provided Work-Site Child Care	156

Facility Models and Locations	157
The Role of Planners	158

chapter 15

Other Child Care Models and Partnerships / 161

Child Care and Older Adult Programs	161
--	-----

chapter 16

Conclusion / 163

Figures

Figure 1-1. Benefits to a Community	4
Figure 1-2. Percentage of Revenue Generated from User Fees	7
Figure 1-3. Child Care: A Missing Piece in Community Planning and Economic Development	9
Figure 3-1. A Typical Day in a High-Quality Early Childhood Program	25
Figure 5-1. Ratio Map	35
Figure 5-2. Pinpoint Map	36
Figure 10-1. Children’s Creative Learning Center—ground floor	124
Figure 10-2. Children’s Creative Learning Center—second floor	125
Figure 11-1. Child Care and Housing	138

Tables

Table 2-1. Types of Child Care Facilities	13
Table 2-2. Community Care Licensing— Total Number of Licensed Facilities	14
Table 2-3. Regulation of Child Care in California	17

Contents

Table 8-1. Community Care Licensing Minimum Ratios	88
Table 9-1. Steps Required to Start a Child Care/Preschool Program	113
Table 10-1. Physical Plant Requirements for Child Care Facilities in California	123
Table 10-2. Range of Development Costs for Child Care Centers	129

Appendices

Appendix A Resources	167
Appendix B Suggested Reading for Non-Planners	173
Appendix C Child Care Offices— Community Care Licensing	175
Appendix D City of San Diego— Child Care Policy	177
Appendix E Strategies for Child Care Supply-Building	179
Appendix F South San Francisco— Impact Fee Ordinance	181
Appendix G Child Care Linkage Program— Primarily in California Cities	187
Appendix H American Planning Association— Child Care Policy Guide	193

Appendix I City of West Sacramento— General Plan (2000) Child Care Element	195
Appendix J Being a Good Neighbor— Tips for Family Child Care Providers	199
Appendix K City of Redwood City— Public Notice for a Large Family Child Care Home	201
Appendix L City of Bakersfield— Large Family Home Child Care Operating Standards	203
Appendix M Ventura County— Child Care Start-Up Guide	205
Appendix N City of Blythe—Child Care Zoning Regulations	211
Appendix O City of Santa Monica— Zoning Districts Guide	215
Appendix P Sample Child Care Center Floor Plan	217
Glossary	219
Acronyms	224
References	225
Index	229