Book at a Glance

CHAPTER 1
Basic Principles of Contract and Civil Law ........................ page 1

CHAPTER 2
Special Requirements Applicable to Public Contracts ............... page 23

CHAPTER 3
Elements of a Public Contract ........................................ page 87

CHAPTER 4
Major Civil and Criminal Prohibitions Against Abuse of the Public Contracting Process .......................... page 103

APPENDIX A
Some Useful, Free Legal Research Sites on the Internet ................ page 169

APPENDIX B
Contents

Introduction xiii
About the Author xvi

CHAPTER 1

Basic Principles of Contract and Civil Law 1

I. Important Sources of Contract Law in California 1

A. California Civil Code 1
B. California Commercial Code 1
C. The California Public Contract Code 2

II. Important Commentaries on Contract Law 2

A. American Law Institute Restatements of Contracts/Other Treatises on Contracts 2
B. Witkin’s Summary of California Law 2
C. California Jurisprudence 3
D. American Jurisprudence 3

III. Twenty-Five Basic Principles 3

A. What Is a “Contract” Anyway? 3
B. Basic Conditions for a Contract 4
1. Parties capable of contracting 4
2. Their consent to the contract 4
3. A lawful object for the contract 4
4. Sufficient cause or consideration for the contract 4
C. Who Can/Must/Cannot Be a Party to a Contract? 4
1. At least two parties required 4
2. Party must have legal capacity to make a contract 4

D. Consent to the Contract 4
1. When consent is not “free” 4
2. Mutual consent 6
3. How to communicate consent 6
4. Revoking proposal before acceptance 6
5. “Fixing” consent 7

E. Contract Must Have Lawful and Feasible Object 7
• Effect of illegal objective 7

F. Parties’ Conduct May Imply a Contract, Even If No Express Contract Exists 7
1. Contracts implied in fact 7
2. Contracts implied in law ("quasi-contracts") 8

G. When Must a Contract Be in Writing? The Statute of Frauds 9

H. When a Contract Is Signed, What Happens to “Pre-contract” Notes and Correspondence: The Parol Evidence Rule 10

I. Unlawful Contracts 10
J. Unconscionable Contracts 11

K. Contracts Void as Contrary to Public Policy 11
1. Courts balance interests for and against enforcing contract term 11
2. Examples of contract terms contrary to public policy 12
3. Severability of unenforceable terms from enforceable ones 13
4. Effect of unenforceable conditions on party’s right to restitution 14
Contents

L. Contracts Require Consideration (Mutual Promises) .................................................. 14
   1. What is good consideration? .................................................................................. 15
   2. Existing legal obligations as consideration ......................................................... 15
   3. Consideration must be lawful. .............................................................................. 15
   4. Executed (present) versus executory (future) consideration .................................. 15

M. Modification of Contracts .......................................................... 16
   1. Modifying an oral contract ................................................................................... 16
   2. Modifying a written contract .............................................................................. 16
   3. Effect of destruction of contract .......................................................................... 16

N. Contracts for Benefit of Third Parties Are Enforceable .............................................. 16

O. Some General Rules for Interpreting Contracts .......................................................... 16
   1. Same standard of interpretation for public contracts as for private ones ............... 17
   2. Interpret contract as fulfilling parties' intent ......................................................... 17
   3. Contract should be interpreted with an eye towards the whole ......................... 17
   4. Interpretation must be lawful and workable ......................................................... 17
   5. If contract is silent, infer a reasonable time for performance .............................. 17
   6. Interpret contract language according to "plain meaning"; special rule for technical jargon ........................................................................................................... 18
   7. Local law and custom generally control ............................................................... 18
   8. Construe ambiguities against drafter .................................................................. 18
   9. Language actually drafted by parties takes precedence over "boilerplate" (form) language ............................................................................................. 18
  10. Promises jointly and severally bind all who agree to them .................................. 18
  11. Special rule for real property contracts Under the Uniform Vendor and Purchaser Risk Act ......................... 18

P. Rescission of a Contract ....................................................................................... 19
   1. What is rescission? ............................................................................................... 19
   2. When may a contract be rescinded? ..................................................................... 19
   3. Cannot waive (surrender) right to rescind because of fraud or material mistake .......................................................... 20
   4. Must give notice of rescission. ............................................................................ 20

Q. Breach of Contract and Remedies for Breach .......................................................... 20
   1. When is a contract breached? ............................................................................. 21
   2. Choice of remedies for breach of contract ......................................................... 21
   3. Liquidated (pre-arranged) damages. .................................................................. 21

IV. Some Basic Maxims of Jurisprudence .................................................................... 21

CHAPTER 2
Special Requirements Applicable to Public Contracts / 23

I. Public Contracts Are Matters of Public Interest—And Thus of Public Record .................. 24

II. Most—Though Not All—Public Contracts Must Be Awarded Through Competitive Bidding 25
   A. State Contract Act Competitive Bidding Procedure ......................................... 25
      1. State agency issuing the contract must first prepare plans and specifications 25
      2. Agency then advertises for bids .................................................................. 28
      3. Interested individuals and firms submit their bids .................................. 29
      4. Agency reviews bids and selects winning bidder .................................. 32
      5. Public agency awards the contract ............................................................. 33
Contents

E. Deadline for Bids ........................................... 46
F. Cannot Circumvent Listing Requirement .......................... 46
G. Effect of Failure to Identify Subcontractor ......................... 46
H. Restrictions on and Effects of Substituting, Assigning, or Subletting Contract .................. 46
I. Special Rules Regarding Subcontracting by Carpeting Subcontractor ................................ 48
J. Effect of Errors in Listing Subcontractors .......................... 48
K. Payment of Hazardous Waste Haulers ................................. 49
L. Civil Code Provisions Regarding Stop Notices for Public Work .................................. 49

VII. Resolution of Claims and Other Disputes Over Public Contracts ................................. 57
A. Introduction: Some Different Ways to Resolve Contract Disputes .............................. 57
B. Some Statutory Provisions Regarding Resolution of Claims and Disputes .................. 59
   1. State Contract Act provisions for arbitration of contract claims ................................ 59
   2. Resolution of contract claims under the Local Agency Construction Act .................. 62

A. The Affirmative Action Debate .................................. 67
B. History of Affirmative Action: Will It Be Declared Unconstitutional? ......................... 69
C. California Public Contract Code Provisions Relating to Affirmative Action ................. 75
   • Laws regarding certification of Minority Business Enterprises and Women’s Business Enterprises .................................................. 76

IX. Public Entities Can Go Only So Far in Contracting Out the Performance of Their Duties and Functions ................................. 83
A. State Legislature Cannot Delegate Local Decision-making Power to Private Entities ............. 83
B. Local Agencies Cannot Contract Away Their Authority to the Point of “Surrender” of That Authority ......................................................... 83

X. Public Contracting Manuals ........................................... 84

CHAPTER 3
Elements of a Public Contract / 87
Overview ............................................................ 87
Model Contract ....................................................... 88
Contract No. 04-0001 Agreement Between CITY OF MULHOLLAND, CALIFORNIA and ABC CONSULTING SERVICES, INC. for Preparation of a Traffic Study

CHAPTER 4
Major Civil and Criminal Prohibitions Against Abuse of the Public Contracting Process / 103
I. Laws Against Misrepresentation ...................................... 104
   A. Perjury and Suborning (Soliciting) Perjury from Another ........................................ 104
   B. Destruction, Alteration, or Falsification of Government Documents ......................... 105
   C. Embezzlement of Public Funds ........................................ 107
Contents

D. Misappropriation of Public Funds

- Reduced penalties in cases of cooperation ........................................... 112
- What is a claim? .................................................................................. 113
- When does someone knowingly submit a false claim? ............................ 113
- False claims may also result in civil suits by the Attorney General or by private parties ................................................................. 113
- California False Claims Act .................................................................. 114
- Interpreting the California False Claims Act .......................................... 117

E. False Claims Against Public Agencies

- Federal False Claims Act ................................................................. 111
- Reduced penalties in cases of cooperation ........................................... 112
- What is a claim? .................................................................................. 113
- When does someone knowingly submit a false claim? ............................ 113
- False claims may also result in civil suits by the Attorney General or by private parties ................................................................. 113
- California False Claims Act .................................................................. 114
- Interpreting the California False Claims Act .......................................... 117

II. Laws Against Favoritism and Self-Dealing

A. Bribery and “Gratuities”

- Bribery of federal officials ................................................................. 118
- Bribery of state and local executive officials ...................................... 120
- Bribery of legislators. ......................................................................... 121
- Bribery of judges and judicial officers ............................................... 122
- State may suspend contractors convicted of bribery and similar offenses ................................................................. 123
- Kickbacks .......................................................................................... 124

B. California’s Conflict-of-Interest Laws:

- Govt. Code Sections 1090 et seq., 1125 et seq., and 87100 et seq. ........ 128

C. Govt. Code Section 1090 et seq.: Prohibiting Financial Interests by Government Officials in Public Contracts

- General restriction .............................................................................. 129
- Specific prohibition on placement of insurance ................................... 129
- When is an officer truly “interested” in a contract? ............................... 129
- When is an officer’s interest remote? .................................................... 129
- Even if one’s interest is remote, public officer must still not influence other public officers to enter into contract ........................................... 131
- Other exceptions to interest ............................................................... 131
- Effect of failure to disclose interest ..................................................... 133
- Exceptions ........................................................................................ 133
- Contracts made in violation of these restrictions are voidable, except by the interested official ............................................................. 134
- Exception for certain agreements regarding real property .................. 134
- Restriction on use of warrants and evidence of indebtedness for personal use ................................................................. 134
- Audits: Certifications under penalty of perjury ................................... 135
- Restriction on payment of warrants and evidence of indebtedness ...... 135
- Suspension of payment .................................................................... 135
- Penalties for violation ....................................................................... 135
- Penalty for disclosure of confidential information for gain ............... 135

D. Govt. Code Section 1125 et seq.—Incompatible Activities of Public Employees

- General prohibition .............................................................................. 136
- What activities are incompatible? ........................................................ 136
- Local agencies develop rules re incompatible activities ....................... 137
- Does not affect compensation in collective bargaining situation ......... 137
- Activities deemed not incompatible ...................................................... 137