

2000 EDITION

CALIFORNIA TRANSPORTATION LAW

A guide to federal, state
and regional requirements

JEREMY G. MARCH

CALIFORNIA TRANSPORTATION LAW

A guide to federal, state
and regional requirements

JEREMY G. MARCH IS AN ATTORNEY AND LEGISLATIVE ANALYST IN LOS ANGELES. HIS SPECIALTIES ARE TRANSPORTATION, ENVIRONMENTAL, AND LAND USE LAW. BETWEEN 1993 AND 1999 HE SERVED AS DEPUTY LEGAL COUNSEL FOR THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATION OF GOVERNMENTS (SCAG), THE NATION'S LARGEST METROPOLITAN PLANNING ORGANIZATION. MR. MARCH CURRENTLY SERVES ON THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE PUBLIC LAW SECTION OF THE CALIFORNIA STATE BAR. HE HOLDS A MASTER'S DEGREE IN URBAN PLANNING FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, AND IS CURRENTLY PURSUING A PH.D. IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION AT USC.

CALIFORNIA TRANSPORTATION LAW is the first-ever collection, in one place, of the most important laws and regulations affecting transportation planning, programming, and funding in California. Serving as a convenient desk reference for those interested in California transportation law and how it applies to various modes of transportation, the book features descriptions, analyses, and citations of all the important statutes and regulations governing how state and regional agencies are obliged to carry out transportation planning functions.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THIS ALL NEW EDITION—

- How to use the Internet to find whatever you need, including statutory, legislative, and regulatory materials
- An easy-to-follow guide to the language used in statutes, bills, and regulations
- A checklist of mandatory federal and state requirements for public outreach during regional transportation planning and programming
- A subject index, glossary, and list of acronyms

TOPICS INCLUDE—

- An overview and analysis of all important federal and state statutes and regulations that affect statewide and regional transportation planning, programming, and funding, including citations for all relevant sections of the statutes and regulations
- Transportation law provisions to help determine which agency is entitled to which funds from what state account in order to build a transportation project
- State Transportation Improvement Guidelines issued by the California Transportation Commission
- Provisions of the Intermodal Surface Transportation and Efficiency Act (ISTEA)
- Major federal statutory and regulatory provisions concerning air quality conformity
- Regional transportation plan guidelines
- Environmental limitations and requirements, including those pertaining to air quality and environmental review
- Title VI guidelines for urban mass transit
- Equal employment opportunity guidelines
- Summary of civil rights laws relating to transportation planning and programming

Published by Solano Press Books
0-923956-55-7