Aunt Lyn's Calming Cologne

Specially formulated for anxiety, Aunt Lyn's CALMING COLOGNE comes in regular and maximum strength. The regular strength product can be used daily to keep your dog calm and smelling great. Just a little spritz can help prevent anxiety from the little stresses your dog may experience in daily life. Maximum strength is specifically formulated for those dogs that are considered high anxiety, such as certain breeds, some rescues and others who are ordinarily nervous and high stressed even under normal circumstances. Aunt Lyn's CALMING COLOGNE is an excellent product for long car rides, going to the vet or during storms.
